Oddissee has asked me to review a vouch copy of this. I've read all of it, and here my honest, unbiased review.

Spoiler (Click to View)

????? Method 9/10 ?????

A high score simply because of one thing - Oddissee thinks outside of the box. This is a big problem with the eWhoring section here at HF. Everyone is after the same thing, and then complaining how saturated it is, or how it is not working.

The amount of content that is covered in this pack is absolutely huge. There are (as of now), seven eBooks that cover almost everything related to eWhoring.

If you are capable of thinking outside of the box, you could come up with 80% of everything covered here. However, most people in this section are not. (The other 20% simply requires experience and trial-and-error that OP did for us.)

You can trust me on that because I have talked to over 150 members personally. And my conclusion is that most of them are blindly following some "public methods", without even trying to implement a twist.

And that is exactly what this pack does. Twisting and turning many techniques and adding new ones.

I would also like to mention that everything that OP promise is there, and is fully working. (Gay eWhoring, Creating your own packs, etc...)

????? Layout 7/10 ?????

The layout was nothing special, but it was pleasant to read. There are images here and there, and the font is large enough that no one should have any troubles reading it.

????? Language 7/10 ?????

I've only noticed a couple of grammatical mistakes (their, they're, there). Nonetheless, I understood everything perfectly clear.

????? Price Value 9/10 ?????

If the pack contained only books, the score would be 6. Simply because you can save yourself 40$ by twisting eWhoring techniques here and there.

HOWEVER, Oddissee is continuously working on the content of this pack, and is offering Skype mentoring. I think that the real value lies within those.

I have talked to OP about some improvements, and he went straight to fixing them. I am 100% sure that this review will be outdated in a week, once there is much more content in the pack.

Secondly, the Skype sessions are where you are getting the best bang for your buck. OP told me many useful tips and advice while simply chatting about eWhoring. I think he can do much more once he is fully focused on mentoring.

????? Overall 8/10 ?????

I can think of maybe 5 people in this forum who wouldn't benefit from this eBook.

If you want a jump start from being a newbie, this is the pack for you.

Everything is very well explained, there are things never mentioned in this forum, it is being updated and improved, you get Skype sessions and OP is a friendly guy.

Again, I would like to say that I believe that all of these scores will be upped as new content is added. I have no doubt that Oddissee can make this already great pack even better.

If OP wants, I will gladly update this review as new content is added.

Just like I said with automatic traffic you can redirect them to cpa pages or ewhore websites.

But you claim that it's "autopilot ewhoring + traffic" so that reads that there's something about eWhoring itself that's autopilot, not just traffic. That's what I'm asking you to elaborate on, not the "method" itself lol.

Like I said I gave you one way to make it autopilot which is CPA/Websites to monetize it by selling packs.

^ which is obviously just a general way to go about it.

You can easily bot this, I'm not going to elaborate. You're asking me to basically give hints about it.

You can easily bot this, I'm not going to elaborate. You're asking me to basically give hints about it. No, I'm asking you to give me hints. I damn well know that you can set up a macro or use Scooby's automator to give them a link to a CrakRevenue signup, I've done that time and time again - Hell, it's a public method. I'm asking what makes your autopilot method special. What makes people "fall for it" that sets it aside from what you said people won't fall for? If it's just putting your Kik name out there and assuming "well I got 950 chats overnight, therefore at least a few signed up! Yay bank!" then why would it be sold for $50? What makes me want to buy what you have to say over going with a public method that can be tweaked ever so slightly to work just as effectively? I'm asking you to sell your product to me. Anyone can claim they make money; I can go to Google and type in "eWhoring methods", write down what I find, compile some packs off of GoneWild and spend a few days prancing around HF as though I have money through inspect element and then turn around and sell something for $50.

If you don't understand what I'm asking and/or can't be bothered to formulate a reply other than the standard "you're asking for hints" bull crap, then just tell me and I'll take my business elsewhere.

Edit: I received a PM from OP explaining some stuff, the contents of which are better left private. The product isn't for me, and that's alright. OP spoke of some revisions so hopefully that benefits current customers. I cannot vouch, nor discourage, the sale of OP's product. I was simply curious as something had caught my attention, that's all. No harm intended.

How long do you guys work on this daily/weekly?
Is this a full time 8hr thing or could it work decently for ~2 hrs sessions
Don't some of the picture packs get reused alot and are prone to being caught?
Are there private videos in the packs floating around to sell them or is it just a picture thing?
