RESOLVED!

Bandors has paid me back all of the amount that he owned me , and something more because of the trouble he caused. ??

Llama™ - February 26, 2016, 5:00 am

Just like me :/

Sorry you got scammed.

isoviacy - February 26, 2016, 5:01 am as i said, i don't like opening dispute threats, because it is kinda our own fault that we have trusted him, however i did it because i saw alot of people getting scammed from this guy..

kondziket - February 26, 2016, 10:22 am

People think Bandors is trusted person because of his rep but this means nothing. He is one of the biggest scammers here. We can say Bandor's on a scamming spree

But if you have made this thread before then other users won't deal with him .

SkyClouds - February 26, 2016, 10:24 am

If you've been waiting 4 months and haven't got what you want, then you're scammed 100%.

Kinguin - February 26, 2016, 10:25 am

There's lots of scam reports about him.

He's using his rep to scam people, so DWC!

SantyMan - February 26, 2016, 10:26 am

Did he make you agree to any special TOS? I've talked some to Bandors and he is a really nice guy. But since I've started seeing so many scam reports I really don't know what to think...

Armada - February 26, 2016, 12:31 pm

My guess is, you agreed to his TOS, which includes no discussion of the transaction.

By opening the dispute, you've now broken his TOS and are not eligible for a refund.

After 4 months of waiting I dont blame you though. It is better to advise people at this point as your likely never seeing the money back.

isoviacy - February 26, 2016, 1:41 pm

Hey

I dont want my money back.. That's the reason i never asked Bandors for a refund (even tho he would never refund).

When i pay for an objective to be done, either you can do it , either you CANT.

I'm here to say Bandors cant hack anything since i gave him 4 months and the last 2 months he is not even responding to my msg's.

The reason for this treat is because i don't want more people to get scammed , since he still offering "hacking lessons"..

The Best

When will people realize these shitty ToS on people's thread hold little value. Its like saying I can start a booter service and sell lifetime spots then close down a day later. But wait this is perfectly fine because my ToS says lifetime = duration the service is running for right? No you obviously cant pull that shit

FeelsBadMan - February 26, 2016, 7:16 pm

Weird.. I talked to him today and he gave me a 100 free instagram followers xD

SIM-2502833 - February 26, 2016, 7:18 pm

I hope others see this and DWC in the future. Sorry about your loss OP.

Prince™ - February 27, 2016, 12:29 am

Two consecutive deal dispute threads on the user by two different people.

Mr. Robot - February 27, 2016, 12:46 am

Can you PM me the twitter? I will look into it.

Bandors is well known for using databases to get into accounts and shouldn't be dealt with.

I know Bandors is around, i'm pretty sure if he could do the job he would have done it.

He scammed me for $300. I feel like such a sucker believing what he had to say and most of all for getting conned by his positive reputation. Seems like theirs a lack integrity with regards to the rating system on HF. I hope no one else deals with such a thing with him in the future. This happened to me about 1 year ago, but never went public about it because of the fact his army of followers would more than likely rep screw me so I remained quiet and I'm still waiting to hear back from him.

Darkwin - April 4, 2016, 8:41 am

I'm seriously beginning to think his hacking service is a sham, I don't even come on HF as often and before but everytime i come-on i see someone claiming to have paid him and not gotten the service, in many cases he makes them wait for months.

Sly. - April 4, 2016, 8:43 am

!! INDIAN SPOTTED !!

Jk JK, but yeah bandors is a nono.

Kuso - April 4, 2016, 8:44 am

What the fuck? I actually liked Bandors.

Bibbly - August 16, 2016, 12:52 pm

this is still a very real scam report

?????s? - January 24, 2017, 12:47 pm

Has this deal dispute been resolved?

oppkern - February 2, 2017, 3:37 pm

Hi,

unfortunately I didn't check the scam reports before making a deal with Bandors.

He scammed me too for $200.

Will post my scam report after the weekend.

To be honest I'm a newbie in this.

I thought it's like in real life... you pay for a service and you get your service delivered.

What I did, I saw his reputation then I read how almost all members with high reputation vouched for him.

I learned my lesson, but it's sad.

It's an online forum, do no trust ANYONE online. If you want to go 99% sure, use a middleman next time. But it's sad, yes, sorry for your loss.

How to use a middleman?

It's actually pretty simple, e.g. you send the funds to a "highly-trusted" user who releases the money when you confirm that you got the product.

I recommend Minimalist.
