Thread: Anyone else got a none techy girlfriend?

?Optimal - February 26, 2016, 9:38 am

Welp I have been dating this girl ; Alexa for close to almost 2 months now. Overall our relationship is going well although she isn't into technology , i mean she barley understands how to use a computer LOL. Its not a big deal to me because we still have other things that we both relate too.

I just wanted to see how many HF members have girlfriends that aren't into technology like them , let me know below!

Your girl Alexa has a whole directory of niqqas all up inside her.

LadderGoat - February 26, 2016, 9:40 am

Had one, used her pc for ratting, stumbled across passwords for facebook, found out she was cheating on me.

Story of my life.

I use to have a girlfriend who would masturbate over some javascript code line

```
if(dildo.isSoft)
{
dildo.makeSuperLarge();
}

You should leave HF while you're new here
the amount of nerds here will undo deflowering and will make you a permavirgin.

Goods - February 26, 2016, 9:52 am

My girl isnt very techy either she usually just gets me to do what ever it is.

As long as nobody has opened up his rear, he's seen as a virgin here.

deflower
deprive (a woman) of her virginity.

Important here are the parentheses. As you can see it actually can be applied for both males and females.

And who said OP is a male? Maybe it's a lesbian relationship?

Also stay mad because i negged u lel.

Coming from someone who has the face of handsome squidward as their profile picture I find your futile attempt at retaliation fairly amusing
