How is it an underground forum when its this much out in the open?

I am not trying to be offensive, it just doesn't add up in my book :)

It's just a shitty attempt to get 12 year old l33t h4xx0rz to join their forum that will die within 2 months.

It's just a title :)

Although I'm planning to make it invite only soon.

Conscious - March 1, 2016, 3:54 am

Alright, if it were invite only that would put some meaning to the words being used in the subtitle ;)

Good luck OP

You can't tell me the forum will die in 2 months because you can't know that, and not even I can't know that.

And even if it fails, I'm going to still keep it going.

You fit right into this: "It's just a shitty attempt to get 12 year old l33t h4xx0rz to join their forum"

Thanks for the input tho' :)

If it fails to grow.

There are already people on the forum.

And the main purpose of the club was not to make it the next reddit or hf. I'm just looking for cool people to chill and learn new things. People with similar interests to mine.

--

Btw: I agree with the fact that it might get 12 yo kids, and it might not work.
But that doesn't mean I should give up or stop trying to get my stuff done.

And thanks again for the input!

Awesome!
This is exactly what people can't understand.
Good luck OP!

That's a dope domain name dawgie.
The color scheme seems a little boring, You should make it darker too to make it look more dank.
Also if you want revenue you can do non obtrusive ad-spaces at the top.

siur - March 3, 2016, 7:23 am

Thanks for the review.
As for the colors, yeah I might try to make it a bit darker, but not to much. I despite the dark side :)
