Thread: [\[Free\]FrozenByte Protector v.1|FUD0/57|ST/RT|x32/x64|.Net ONLY|Updated 3.6.2016](#)

Ov3rFl0w - March 4, 2016, 7:31 am

Status: Detected. 8/23

I'm working on new version of the crypter, (New RunPE) to support all .net and Native files also.
There is no ETA. Please be patient and dont bump the thread. Ill update the thread when im done.

This is my first release of my crypter. It's coded in .Net so it will support ONLY .Net RATs currently such as Luminosity.Link, njRAT ...etc

Its coded from scratch by me and Armitage?.

Update Log:

Code V-1.1: 3/6/2016

- [+] GUI Changed.
- [+] ReFUD.
- [+] Improving performance
- [+] Fixed WindowsApplication1 Compatibility Error.

V-1: First Release

Features:

- [+] FUD 0/35
- [+] Strong AES Encryption (Custom Coded)
- [+] Scantime + Runtime (Reflection)
- [+] Bypass Proactive Defenses
- [+] Work on x32 / x64
- [+] Works ONLY with .Net
- [+] Built-In USG (Fake Resources/API/Form Designer/Functions/Const-Vars)
- [+] 30~70KB Internal Stub Size (Depends on junk code / USG, Real stub size is 20kb without junk)
- [+] Tested & working on : WinXP/Win Vista/Seven/8/8.1/10
- [+] Tested on : njRat v0.6d, LuminosityLink, Imminent Monitor

You can use all of your RAT features on LuminosityLink, I do that without problems as long as FrozenByte doesnt affect your internal features.

Please dont complain for functionality problems, please reply here your problem and ill consider it in next release.

I protected it with password for reason, please dont share/help people with the cipher, sharing will increase detection caused by unwanted leechers.

Astropid.META - March 4, 2016, 11:47 am

I LOVE THIS SHIT! Seriously, encrypting a crypter is such a smart idea to keep a free FUD crypter FUD. I love solving these things even if they make me feel really stupid.

I just want to know where I can start by making my own crypter...

If you did resolve this riddle, you have good knowledge about how to start making a crypter.

Just learn any programming language, and learn how to make storage system for encrypted cipher and then how to read that cipher ,, decrypt and execute with RunPe.

This how crypters work.

Well, your little comment just saved my life,, because of u i have analyzed quasar rat source code and appeared that it contains Code Application.EnableVisualStyles();

Which doesnt support EntryPoint.Invoke that my crypter uses.. Ill have to change my entryptpoint to another one to let it work .

I recommend Imminent Monitor / Luminosity.Link / njrat 6

i know njrat have detections even if u encrypted it, it will remain detected runtime because of it has been analyzed by AVs long time ago.

i use IM / LL with no problems at all

OMG Yes! so i was running 0.7d njrat i downloaded 0.6.4 and the crypted rat now works fine so happy u said njrat 6 or i would of never got it working njRAT 0.7 is modified version of 0.6, My crypter should work 100% without problems on RATs that build by untouched stubs, like: njrat6, LL, IM

Change RAT to njRAT0.6 or IM/LL and it will work without problems.

Hi there,

Thanks for sharing this with HackForums community.

I was resolving your anti-leech program but i don't know if i really understand the way to do it.

I resolved many's and many's programs like that but i don't understand this one because of my english i think so ...

I'm a little bit bad at english, so what does "Cipher" mean ? Is the "Cipher" the encrypted data i have to resolve ? Or it's a decryption key for on of those decryption methods ?

Thanks in advance for your reply, if you don't it's not a problem i undestand :D, maybe i'm a noobie xD.

Thanks for sharing this with HackForums community.

I was resolving your anti-leech program but i don't know if i really understand the way to do it.

I resolved many's and many's programs like that but i don't understand this one because of my english i think so ...

I'm a little bit bad at english, so what does "Cipher" mean ? Is the "Cipher" the encrypted data i have to resolve ? Or it's a decryption key for on of those decryption methods ?

Thanks in advance for your reply, if you don't it's not a problem i undestand :D, maybe i'm a noobie xD.Cipher is output of Encryption process. Arrows in steps are Encryption process. not Decryption .. Keys were used in order 123 to Encrypt...

Use ur mind to decrypt. :)

Hi, i hope not only i have this problem.

After .NET Application (RAT, Keylogger and etc.) crypted i have .NET error, You are 100% right it is "UNICODE" problem (depends on env where use crypt). So, my question is: can U update distr and fix the problem ?

Anyway You (both of You) make a great work on this encryptor, Thanks.

P.S. Check 5 min ago, crypter work with Imminent Monitor Great (for Me) !

Only 2 AV (Kaspersky and Dr.Web), Proof:
