Why I`m not giving away vouch copies?

From experience, I have given away vouch copies and people were taking advantage, giving bad reviews so the would be the only ones using the method. I will not give away any vouch copy, and that is my final decision, PLEASE do not ask for a vouch copy.

Refunds available?

If you did exactly as I said in the guide, and you still don't receive any messages, I will refund you 100%.

Why did I create a new topic?

I changed the payment gateway to Paylvy and I couldn't edit my old topic.

Anyways, got the method, here's my quick review.

? DESIGN ?

He literally PM'd me the text. But the method is extremely short, and that works. However, I simply like having a "hard" copy (in this case a .pdf), so I would suggest maybe creating an actual eBook.

? EASE-OF-USE ?

Literally everyone can go to the site, sign up, create the profile. That's all there is to it. The author even provides some tips, but they are known to everyone in this business.

? QUALITY ?

You get what you were promised. Horny dudes will start messaging you within seconds. It's up to you to convert that into money.

Additional benefit is that this website has a mobile app, so you can do this while on the go.

? RESULTS ?

After literally 2 minutes:

Example:

my fav, what a pickup line:

? CONCLUSION ?

Basically, you're paying for the website URL of an unsaturated dating/social platform. If you are able to justify that, go ahead and get it while it's still fresh.

EDIT: My, my... would you look at this? I guess this doesn't prove much, but here's a definite proof that there is at least one guy there who is ready to pay for nude pictures.

Update,

Now usually I'm the one who agrees if something looks to good to be true it usually is, but after registering to the website which took me maybe 3 minutes and to post this update, I have received 19 messages and the pictures I'm using really aren't the hottest girl either. So the original vouches definitely were not lying. I'll keep you updated.
