Thread: Ryan Reynold's Feedback Thread | 10,000 Posts | 3+ Years on HF |

funtela - March 6, 2016, 9:06 pm

Btw, this feedback thread post is my 10,000th post :p

Shoutout to Wuss for making me this beautiful header!

About Me

Hi there :) I'm Ryan Reynolds & I'm a 24 year old male living in Miami, FL. I work a lot from home which is great because I can spend so much time on HF!

I've made dozens and dozens of friends on here and I'm so grateful for meeting those people. There are truly some amazing users on here. HF is pretty much my escape from IRL problems and the stuff on here always keep my mind busy and entertained :)

I found HF back in 2013 looking to buy a Netflix account. I did a Google search and HF came out and I was instantly hooked. I bought a Netflix account and started learning so much. Within a week I bought I33t and even had my own Netflix & Hulu shop open!

I then purchased Ub3r as soon as I was approved because I knew I was here to stay. I tried my best to help and contribute since I joined and I was always happy to do so :)

Long story short, HF is like a second home to me.

Top 5 Sections

/\\ The Lounge /\

One of my favorite sections. The amount of craziness is here is incredible. There's always something interesting to read and keep me entertained.

I spend a lot of time in here just to see what kind of things people are talking about. It really helps kill time.

/\\ Premium Sellers Section /\

I've sold so many products on HF that I lost count. This section is what has made me money on HF and I can't thank Omni enough for that.

There's also a lot of great products on sale there from friends of mine and the variety of things being sold is incredible!

/\ Social Networking Services /\

Wow, I can't believe this isn't my #1 lol. Social Networking is my thing. This section is the one that actually got me into Social Media.

I've sold so many services on here and bought a bunch as well. Starting from small amounts of Twitter followers and now I'm even selling shoutouts on my 2mill Instagram account.

Again, this is a section that has made me a lot of money and I can't thank the community enough for that.

/\ Online Accounts /\

Another section that brought me into Social Media. This section has taught me so much about accounts and how much they are worth, etc.

I've sold and purchased a lot of accounts here as well!

/\ Secondary Sellers Market /\

Hmm I guess this is where it all started when I started to sell on HF and wasn't an upgraded member. I still post and buy from there a lot. Since non-upgraded users still have a lot to offer :)

Group MembershipsJust a short summary of some of the groups I've been in and some that I'm still in :)

First group I was ever in. I was so excited to have a unique userbar haha. It was a fun group while it lasted. Met a lot of cool people and I had a great time being a part of Infamous!

I was in this group for a short period of time before it was sold. I don't have much to say since my time there was literally about a week. But it was a good group while it lasted :)

Royalty, probably the most HQ group I'm in. Nothing but amazing users on there and the subforum is full of amazing content that has helped me a lot. This is without a doubt one of the most exclusive groups on HF

I've been having so much fun in this group. I've met some amazing users and I've been having such a wonderful time being a part of Dawn.

Another amazing group! I'm a huge console gamer so this group is great! Met some great people to play online with and the subforum is extremely active and fun! Honestly, a lot of my posts are in that SF haha.

This is probably the funniest group I've been in (in a good way). It's so active and there's always random topics being discussed. I've met a bunch of cool members here :)

I was in Echo for about a week until things changed. It was fun while it lasted though :) Met a bunch of cool people and learned a few things about others :D

Not trying to trash or anything but what are these feedback threads and why would anyone care?

I find these "feedback" threads more like "bragging threads" and "asslicking threads" combined in one.

Nothing towards you alone ryan, but to all "feedback" thread makers.
