Thread: A report button in the rep section under profile

iUpgrade - March 9, 2016, 12:17 am

Recently like 2 days ago, a guy randomly named "EmperorR" neutral repped me for no reason, he has 2-3 scam reports against him, i pm'ed him bout this and he just readed & ignored my pm, i was thinking if omni could add a report button beside rep section in profile to report the random reps.

The rep you received doesn't violate any rules it seems. Move on.

Nothing you can do about it, and it would be over used. The amount of people that think some things are rep abuse when they aren't, lol.

You should read how the help document explains reputation abuse, if he gave you a random rep he's not doing anything wrong.

A button wouldn't make sense as Omni has already explained the process on what to do if you have been given an inappropriate reputation.

As rick said, it would just be abused. I also oppose this idea, sorry.

He didn't directly call you a scammer though? ?

How can you prove you aren't or vice versa?

Thanks for the comments.

I have those too, and they don't really mean anything. Don't let it get to you. ?

Then you follow the steps in the help document, you send them the COPY/PASTE that it has in the help documents and if they don't change it then you contact Omni.

Quote:How do I report an invalid scammer reputation?

We suggest you send them a Private Message informing them of site policy and the consequences unless they alter the reputation within 24 hours. Give them that time to alter it. Do not report the reputation to an admin until that 24 hours has passed. Do not threaten the member in the PM. Instead copy/paste this:

I am sending this PM to you because you've given me an invalid scammer reputation. Policy dictates that I send this text to you. HackForums policy requires that all scammer inferences in reputation require a link to a Deal Dispute forum thread that you have created. Either you didn't leave a link or the link you did leave is to a thread not created by you. As such you have 24 hours to alter your reputation to be within policy. Failure to do so will result in your reputation being reported to an admin which can result in severe action against your account. If you'd like to confirm this policy please read this help doc:

I really dont care too if it was my mistake but i don't know what this guy has to do with me, i never had any deal with him so was thinking how to report it.

Bluffer - March 9, 2016, 12:29 am

Are you referring to that neutral rep you received that says Deal With Caution? You REALLY need to read the help documents, it explains literally everything. DWC reps are allowed, scammer reps aren't unless you were the person scammed and link to the deal dispute (I think that's right?)

You really need to read the Help Documents. If he's not calling you a scammer or flaming you it's not abuse. I hope REAL flaming continues to be considered rep abuse I know things have got more hazy on that than they used to be. But "random" rep is not rep abuse and we're lucky when admins are kind enough to delete real flame repping and accusations of scamming with no link to a deal dispute. They certainly aren't going to add a report button for every idiot to press when plenty of neg rep does not break rules.

Omniscient - March 9, 2016, 5:38 pm

RKO'd.

Do not report reputations that do not violate site policy.
