Thread: Buying ranks, awards etc with PayPal?

YUNG BoY - March 10, 2016, 4:12 am

I was looking on the Upgrade page and noticed that Hackforums only take crypto as payment? Why is this?

I found a thread where Admin announced that crypto is now the only accepted payment, which makes me think that Paypal used to be possible?

Thanks.

Omni had removed the PayPal payment option due to changes they made to their ToS. He even had to get a his lawyer involved multiple times to get things resolved. You can exchange PayPal for BTC in this section.

Paypal changed TOS, which somehow the site violated. Unless it can get resolved crypto will only be accepted for the time being.

You can always ask someone who accepts paypal to buy them for you or exchange your paypal to BTC.

It's no longer possible to purchase anything from HF using PayPal. You might be able to exchange for a different currency or payment method in the Currency Exchange section.

Fairly sure we won't be accepting Paypal again. I'm not even going to bother trying.
