Thread: What do you Desire

Tell me what do you truly desire. Is it money? Is it fame? Is it bitches? Or maybe you happiness?

I think I'd go with happiness honestly. With happiness comes everything you want and need Money.

Money brings bitches, sometimes fame, and you can buy shit that would bring you happiness.

Is this coming from lucifer? I love that show so much

Kyle Beats - March 10, 2016, 3:33 pm

I desire I was the same person I was about 3 years ago because my depression and medication prescribed by doctors fucked me up.

Mostly my fault, waited way too long to do anything about it.

The Silenced - March 10, 2016, 3:34 pm

I would probably say being extremely successful & having a woman by my side whos down to go to the top with me, true loyalty & happiness.

It's fairly new. Just came out like a month 1/2 ago. You should watch it if you haven't seen it yet.
