Thread: Can I report a invalid scam report?

Powder - March 13, 2016, 2:01 pm

Like the title already says, someone made a INVALID scam report against me. Can I report it? Or do something against it?

? Soufian ? - March 13, 2016, 2:02 pm

I don't think so.

Just post proof of him being wrong in the dispute thread.

Don't what to see say apart from prove that you're innocent. If that's the situation.

Dispute his false claims in the deal dispute.

Nothing else you can do.

Ambien - March 13, 2016, 2:19 pm

Yeah nothing else you can do if you provided evidence that you didn't scam. If your innocent people will side with you.

Crowley - March 13, 2016, 5:18 pm pm the staff and let them look over the proof... Add even more proof. Go beyond the limit of proofs just so you can prove your innocence.

Camel Crush - March 13, 2016, 5:24 pm

If it's invalid, show the proof as to why and how it is invalid - Provide screenshots of anything you can to show others its invalid. It's not going to go away if you PM a staff and say "There's an invalid scam report on me" with no proof, when they have better things to do.

Reply to this 'invalid' scam report, provide multiple screenshots, pictures, messages, the whole nine yards proving it is invalid, other wise people are going to think it's legit. I learned HF is all about rep. If there'a an invalid scam report on your name, take care of it and prove it's false.

Mentioned this to an extent in my post above you, good sir.

You cannot report a thread, but like users mentioned above post proof to claim your innocence.

Do not PM staff with your deal disputes please.
