Hey guys have you guys got any guides to maximize the gold my garrison can make and a estimated time it would take to fully upgrade it.

Also whats a good list of Raids I should do to make a nice sum of gold doing solo runs.

When it comes to garrisons I like to make sure to max a Inn to level 3, this will unlock treasure hunter missions in your garrison and shipyard which can earn you anywhere from 40-2000 gold each from what Ive experienced. Also every week it allows you to recruit 1 new follower with a trait or ability of your choice. always pick treasure hunter becauseu this will double the gold you get from missions making your missions worth 80-4000 gold. (this ability is stack able if you put 2 followers with the treasure hunter trait on the same mission.)

Max your shipyard to get the most worth wile missions.

Lastly max your herb garden and your mine and sell the mats you earn in stacks of 200 on the AH. These building will be earning you the most gold from your garrison.

Here is a list of legacy raids to run for extra gold:

Every week I run all the cata raids and on heroic 25man looting all items over one gold then selling them to vendors. They are easy to solo and will pull in about 6k gold. I also run ICC and uldum for my chance at invincible and mirmons head following the same method which earns about 800g each.

Let me know if this helped. Also if you're on Sargaras feel free to add me!

I do this all the time. All my garrisons on my 13 toons are level 3 and have taverns/warmill/max followers/shipyards. I make anywhere from like 500-3k a day from just logging in. Anyway, I run old raids on most of my toons every week and make around 7-10k depending on how lazy I am, I run all cata raids, and some other stuff for mounts I'm going for and what not. Basically when you have 10+ toons you can make a ton of gold super easy from just doing old raids. Cata gives the most gold and you can solo all raids at like 685 ilvl but you can get free 700ilvl on all your toons from PvP really easy. If you want to know anything else, just let me know or pm me.

I've only been going hard for around 3 months and this is where I'm at. I'm currently at 350k though since I took this like a week go.

You can make easy gold with Heroic Cata raids, only ones with 6+ bosses, don't waste time flyin for 2 bosses. So 15k weekly with 1 char, if you got like 5 chars = 75k weekly, enough I'd say. ^^
