Currently not buying BTC at the moment. I only sell BTC at a 15% rate. I will be adding that feature as my market accrues more exchanges and transactions. In the meantime, I offer only the exchange of BTC->Paypal.

I will not scam anyone on this forum over small amounts. My reputation and relationship with the customer is more important than any monetary value. I carry my own weight, and have the backing and support of Divined to run this service. Divined will not need to pay back anybody as I ensure customer satisfaction in all my exchanges. If you would like, you can try out my service and have your Paypal exchanged for my BTC. Then you can leave a thorough review of my services.
