Most of traffic comes from google, but I advertised on my twitter what is about anime, and made a twitter for the blog its self. I wanted to make this into Movie and Anime however feel like would get to cluttered.

The website is cool and all, but the reviews are so goddamn short.

Put some more detail and story ploits and stuff to base it off of, like a review shouldn't be less then 30 lines of text.

It's short for a reason I didn't want to write to much and people lose interest so it's a short over view, why would I need to tell everyone the plot when they can watch it then selfs

Updated looking for more opinions

Nevieth - April 1, 2016, 8:58 pm

I like the look of the review site, but some categories are completely empty. You should either get watching or bring on new reviewers. I personally wouldn't mind doing reviews for content some people may find uncomfortable to watch... you know, Shounen Ai... since a lot of people surprisingly don't like gay anime.

All in all I think once you register the domain KarmaReviews.com/ .net/ .org it'll work even better.

Ah alright got it.

Oh and I'm very surprised but pleased to hear you're up to watching any genre including those most anime viewers on this site would call gross.

I'll certainly send you a message later about seeing what I can do to help out. I think it's a great idea what you're doing, and recommend you open the review site up a bit. Anime is good, but review for light novels, visual novels, and even manga would add a lot to the content you'd have available for your readers.

I wrote up a super quick and basic review/ introduction for the Manhwa Tower of God over on my website. Check it out to see what I can provide to your site. I'll message you the link so I don't have to advertise on your thread.

It's a great way to keep reviews mostly unbiased and to allow us multiple review options.

If it's just one person you'll start to find bias, with multiple reviewers you'll have more content available with different opinions reviewing them.

It's up to you though I suppose.
