Thread: Hard work & Dedication pays off.

The Silenced - March 16, 2016, 12:22 pm

So..I've been working at a cell phone repair store for a year now, bust my ass everyday and try to make my customers as happy as possible. Needless to say after grinding for a year straight, today I got promoted to lead tech(full time & a raise) and I got a key to the store. For the first time in a long time, I feel successful.

Whatever your goals may be, keep grinding and the hard work will pay off. Just wanted to share with everyone.

Congrats man! Don't let this success stop you tho, keep grinding, don't be stuck at one position for longer than two years I guess.

I'm in my mid 20's. Been in the cell phone industry for awhile, this isn't the first store i've worked at, but the first one that i've stuck with and really worked hard to get where I am.

Damn, good job man.

Keep going though, don't slack off haha.

Kuso - March 20, 2016, 3:53 pm

So can I send my phone to you? I got this small scratch in the top left corner of my phone. Just adjust the light a bit and you can see it.

I just don't want to pay for it.

K thanks (:
