Thread: Recover Account - Returning from 6 Month Vac Ban

Axel temp - March 17, 2016, 6:21 pm

I'm returning from a 6 month Vac ban, I lost the Gauth, Password & Email.

The account: 'Axel / UID: 2717628

If I could be reminded the E-mail, I could easily regain access to the account, or any other options I'll try. ?

Oops, sorry [Bank Name], I seemed to have misplaced my name, my social security number, my birth certificate and all of my bank details including my client number. Mind if I get them back? Pretty please?

The point still stands, you don't forget unless you have some kind of health condition that prevents you from correctly remembering things.

I fuck up email and passwords literally 3 times a day. And I'm mentally stable.

I mess up a lot of things weekly and this guy has been on a vacation ban for a long while. It's pretty easy to forget stuff like this.

Hi Axel, requesting you to use Contact Form or (PM if available) for this request.

Your account will be repkilled for forgetting your details, but it'll be recovered in most cases.

Omniscient - March 18, 2016, 2:16 pm

IP and location change. I will not recover the account.
