Thread: Become UnResolveable on Skype \(1-Click-Method\)

Fenzox - March 19, 2016, 9:08 am

Although skype resolving is semi patched, you can still be resolved.

I found a method to become 90% unresolveable, Pm me to get this method :)

Wasn't able to resolve myself from some public resolvers. Can't vouch for 1 click though, actually took 5 :P

Guys it's just the tick box to disallow connections

This is what he PMd me.

click on "Tools" then click "Options" then "Advanced" and finally "Connection". Now locate where it says "Allow direct connections to your contacts only." And make sure this option is checked (click the box next to it).

Doing this will make you completely unresolvable. There are still other ways for users to get your IP through Skype one of them being the WireShark method which requires them to be in a voice call with you.

Leave a thanks on the thread or a green apple for me. Appreciated :)

Asking for rep Is disallowed.
