Thread: [\[Squad\] Giving away leet to one lucky non upgraded member. \[Squad\]](#)

Lucas Hood - March 19, 2016, 1:39 pm

In the name of the group, I will be giving away leet to one lucky non upgraded member. Contest will end as soon as thread has 100 posts on it.

How will I choose winner? I will use random.org and roll a number 1-100. Who ever it lands on, gets it. Will record it and post it on thread. Best of luck to the winner, who ever it is, I hope you enjoy leet! It's pretty awesome!!!

Your number is your post number. If it lands on some leet or uber that is posting in this thread ill reroll

Edit: Changing it to 70 posts till I end the giveaway. Doing it now. ?

Concluded the giveaway by giving this dude leet. It landed on him so I did him. I will set requirements next time like rep and posts.
