Thread: 10 Players Who Changed RuneScape

Duyere - March 19, 2016, 5:45 pm

Just seen this video and thought I would share.

It kind of makes me wonder what RuneScape would be like without game changing players. Imagine PKing without knowledge of pure builds. I wish Will Mist It would have mentioned who created the pure idea. I used to remember who but that's been long since lost in history.

Do checkout this guy's videos though. He makes lots of educational RS videos about shit you most likely don't know.

I watched this about 45mins ago, was interesting.

Shame I wasn't on the list but hey, who remembers the old pkers really anyway.

Watched that earlier this week. Really find videos like this and Mote Plox vids really interesting.

Durial321 & Cursed You (Fally Massacre)

Jojo3000 (Lured countless amount of rares and gold)

I believe them three should be on this list without a doubt.

I think he was trying to avoid the more known names. It would have been better if this was like a top 50 list.

Really interesting video, I wasn't expecting more than half of the players that were listed on there.

i wish Skychi would come back.

I think he tried in 2014, but he was legendary and pretty cool.

I loved Skychi. He was one of the few RS tubers I actually enjoyed.

Yeah he actually did try to come back, I believe I've seen him in Catherby bank like almost 3 years ago.

This list is not even good wtf.

There was way more influential people who changed RS and the community. Maybe 3 or 4 deserved to be on the list that were already on.

I am still wondering till the day of today who Zezima was. People said it were 4 people on 1 account.

I think this list was to showcase not so famous players.

His name is Peter Zezima. Zezima is the guy's last name. I'm pretty sure it's one person. He is a somewhat of active streamer nowadays as well.
