The "we are supreme," and "we are everything" messages almost put me off because they're so narcissistic. Other than that, looks pretty good from the brief little look. It's the same, recycled HF clone, minus the "Hack" section that comes around here every few days. I don't know how long your forum will honestly last but I wish you the best of luck.

This forum is not going away it will continue to remain around, And the supreme is because Uber stands for supreme, and the "we are everything" is because it is a multi-purpose forum that listens to the members and is choosing the path of which the members want.

And it is taking a different path from HF with many different features on the way

Thanks for the luck wish and I appreciate your response.

Thanks for the luck wish and I appreciate your response. I understand what Uber means and that it's multi-purpose, but it doesn't really have a niche. There's no real reason for me to leave HF in favor of your forum; I'm glad that it's going to take a different path however at the moment you have everything that HF has, and HF has the userbase.

Good luck with your project, I'd love it if you came back in a year and proved me wrong. :) People dipping their fingers in something and taking them out with something beautiful is amazing. You guys definitely put your time into it. (:
