Hey, first off thanks for the awesome thread

No Scam Reports- None, I am in negative rep because of a bad post about rep but if you look I have been trying to earn it down slowly!

•No matching IP's - I was ban from this forum as a noob a couple years back for posting in the wrong sections but I kept my name and am back to join/help the HF community! no other reason for double ip than a screw up a few years ago.

•Post what upgrade u want - I would like l33t because I could have a title, which will allow me to help the community more and give advice and have more of an opinion on HF. I plan to be here for years to come and would appreciate this chance to start my HF legacy :) ty gl to all

I don't know nor do I particularly care why you're denied, merely mentioning it to let you know no matter what you wont get Ub3r in this contest. Ask Omni, not me.

I'm not trying to be a dick, I'm just frustrated that three people in a row couldn't remember HF rules about how to obtain Ub3r before entering a contest to request Ub3r.

Sort of makes the entry pointless, I recommend changing your entry to Ep1c or something obtainable.

I didnt even know that was a rule. I have never upgraded myself. Let alone looked up the proper procedures. I never even applied to be ub3r, i emailed staff.

Insomnia upgraded me for some random reason a long time ago, im just letting you know how you come off, no harm done my man.

You have a good night, or day, depending. :)
