Do you have any competitive experience? : Many years ago. Was on eRa comp team back in 2011 when they were #3 sniping.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : In all honesty that greatly depends on what they are about. As long as you have actual events and a lot of active members to play with I can dedicate almost every night.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : People to play with, competitions, possibility to make some more friends.

Why should you be accepted? That's up to you after you review my application. I know it won't be the prettiest or most detailed, but it answers the questions exactly as you asked them.

What games do you play? :

My current most played games right now are: The Last of Us: Factions, Far Cry: Primal, Guitar Hero & CSGO.

Do you have any competitive experience? :

I have a lot of unprofessional competitive experience. I used to non stop play COD: MW 1&2 quite a few years back. I recently picked it up again within in the last year with CSGO & TLOU.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :

I only work 3 days a week, so the 4 other days.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector :

To be able to connect with other Brotherhood members and compete in competitive games. If I need to purchase a game to compete, that's fine. Learning to become competitive on a new game is all part of the fun. I also hope to meet some cool new people to play some games with.

Why should you be accepted? :

I have a 4 year history on HF and have always been interested in meeting some new people to game with on a competitive level. Brotherhood seems like the perfect group to be re-introduced to the competitive gaming scene and have fun while doing so.

I should be accepted because:

I will be dedicated to the group.

I know what it takes to run a group, as I own one myself.

I will be active within the sub forums and within the group events.

I don't feel the need to flame when I lose.

I appreciate the time you took to read my application, thanks and good luck to everyone.

What games do you play?: I actively play:BO3

Fifa 16

GTA

Old Gen Cods on my 360

Rocket League

Do you have any competitive experience?: I am extremely above average at FPS games and can prove this. I used to run GBs regularly.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events?: Significantly more time than the members you recruited in the last wave. There's a very good chance I'll be available for any and all events to play with my boys.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector: To not be a fucking lounge group like every other group on HF. To actually recruit people that are down to play Cod with each other and have a good time. I want to bond with you all and become something of a squad for all different game types. I'm excited for something like that, I really am.

Why should you be accepted? I am NOT joining this group to sit in the fucking lounge. Fusion is fucking trash now because no one even games together, and the ones who do play Xbox are all cancer. I want a legit group of brothers that are down to play competitively with me, whether it be on Cod or something else.

Guys I'm not going to add a bunch of fluff like I did last time. Recruitments for this group are usually run based on picking those members who the leaders are friends with, and then the gaming aspect fails and people just sit in the lounge. If that's what this is going to be, do not pick me up because the cute little Brotherhood userbar is not worth the effort to have to keep up with another lounge. I am applying to join a group to do what I love to do. If that isn't what this is for then don't pick me up. If this is going to be based around gaming and being active offsite as well as onsite then I can confidently say I am the right pick. Just know that with me you're getting a dedicated member who has all the time in the world to spend with my brothers.

*side note, I'm not in like 8 groups anymore and I'll be leaving Fusion if picked up obviously.

Age :21-25. I am pretty mature for my age. (Please be aware, I don't care about your age in general, I only require you to act like a mature person)

What games do you play? :I am currently playing call of duty black ops 3 I was master prestige by December 15th 2015 with Dark Matter. I have a 1.98 K/D ratio also. I absolutely love Rocket League and I am actually kind of pissed I didn't know about this game sooner than I did. I also love Halo, even though I believe they killed the series I still buy the new games and follow the story line.

A few games I still need to play: Bioshock,Mass Effect,Assassins Creed,Skyrim and I am thinking about purchasing the full Fallout series and doing those.

Do you have any competitive experience? :I was big into Game battles back in my halo 3 days. I use to play halo 2 competitive as well but not on GB I'd go to local lans. But trust me when I play call of duty I still sweat my ass off and try to win. Unless my team is just terrible then there is nothing I can do about that.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :I game just about every night. I play anywhere from 5-6 hours a night but it all depends on if I have to work the next day and how tired I am. On the weekends I can play nonstop for 12-15 hours. Like I said it all depends on when they are and if I have to work.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector :I am honestly wanting to join so I can make some new friends and have people to play with. Back in the day I would get home from class turn on my xbox and have a whole friends list to play halo 3 with and now I don't have that. All of the people that I have now sit and watch Netflix non stop which is okay but they never want to play.

Why should you be accepted?I am pretty knowledgable in the gaming scene. I use to know a lot more when I was younger but I still know my way around everything. I'm just a friendly gamer looking for friends is what it is. I have been gaming since I was a little kid playing duck hunt and the original Mario. I try my best to help people out if it's from their PC to Xbox even if I don't know something about it I will still google and try my best to help them.

Here is my very first mothership in black ops 3 lol Don't hate I barely knew how to use it at the time.

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XUFnQrQUxsw>]

I would also like to state that all of my xbox one games were stolen from me and I only have black ops 3 and Rocket League right now. Bummer I know but things happen. My disc games were stolen not my digital. I have gears of war ultimate,blops 3,advanced warfare. Some others!

I am also a PC gamer so if people would want to take a break from Xbox I can easily switch to that and play CSGO,Rocket League,Smite,League,WOW.

Do you have any competitive experience? : Yes, I'm an extremely good team player, I've held a 15+ win loss online on every call of duty.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I can spend as much time as the team decides to spend on these, I personally like playing with Incognitio and the other old Gaming sector members quite a lot, they're all cool guys.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood PS4 Gaming Sector : A fun environment and a opportunity to make new friends and bond with older members of the brotherhood that I've already met.

Why should you be accepted? : I think I should be accepted as I thought my addition to the brotherhood priorly was a good edition and I thought I got a long with most Memebbers, miss seeing this led by TJ, but Ty is a great guy too, and it'll be a fun experience to see what Ty does with the sector, hopefully I'm accepted to be a contribution to this team once again.

Do you have any competitive experience? : I played a ton of competitive Call of Duty. Played on Ghosts(Best, won multiple AM tourneys), Black ops 2, MW3, and MW2. Also played the occasional Fifa or NHL GB

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? : I can dedicate around 4 hours each night sometimes less if I sleep but more on the weekends considering I don't go outside much

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector : I expect to meet the gamers of HackForums also to find new friends that I can game with and make memories with

Why should you be accepted? :

I think I should be accepted into the gaming sector since gaming has been apart of me since I was 3. The late 90s was my year, pokemon and several other games came out that fascinated me. I've been gaming since I was young and I never exclusively played one genre. I play all games that seem interesting to me. Sometimes just for multiplayer or campaign. I'm also a chill person who doesn't rage or scream when I am playing games. I act mature when I need to as well. Hopefully, you guys deem me worthy and give me a chance. Thanks for letting me apply. Age :

What games do you play? :

From a young age, I've tested and played a variety of different games from many genres. However, currently, I do narrow my game selection on the Playstation 4, to only a few popular titles which I enjoy playing with friends. The game that I'm probably most active on is Call of Duty Black Ops 3, as I love playing Zombies/MultiPlayer with my friends. I actually also started playing MLG GameBattles recently, as my friend thought I was pretty good at the game, so he let me join his team.

Another game I'm pretty active on is Grand Theft Auto 5. To be honest, there isn't really an explanation to why I love this game so much, it is what it is. There are endless amount's of fun on here, and it's really enjoyable when you have friends playing with you online.

When I'm feeling a bit cheeky, I jump on FIFA 16 and may play some Pro Clubs with a few of my friends for a good bit of fun. I also do play a lot of my friends online at FIFA, but I prefer playing FIFA when I have friends come over, or if I visit their houses.

I've mentioned a few multiplayer games that I've played, but I haven't mention singleplayer games. One of my favourite titles at the moment is Just Cause 3, which I've been playing a lot recently. Apart from the glitches, the game is fantastic, and can give you hours of fun on your own.

A final game which I play occasionally with my friends as well is Star Wars Battlefront. I mainly played this after being hyped up about the new Star Wars Movie, but since around Mid January, I haven't really been playing much.

Those are the current games which I am most active on, and to be honest, I haven't really built much of a collection for PS4 Games yet, since I bought it about 4 months ago after selling my XBOX ONE. However I am looking to build my collection and experience a lot of new games, and I think The Brotherhood has excellent members who could potentially help me with this.

Do you have any competitive experience? :

Yes, I do. On the PS4, as I mentioned above, I don't have that much competitive experience, since I have only purchased the console a few months back, but even then, I still play a few MLG Gamebattles games with my friends.

However, aside from the PS4, I used to love playing competitively on all Call of Duty titles up until BO2, after which I didn't touch COD till BO3 now on PS4.

Back to the point, I did used to love playing competitive on BO2, MW3 and MW2, and for some time was part of minor clans, who used to match up against other clans and have private matches with. Other than COD, I don't really know any other games to play competitive in, but again, this is something The Brotherhood could potentially help me with.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? :

I would like to be fully honest with this, and say that I will be very dedicated to gaming nights and other community events. I see The Brotherhood as a group which is full of the highest of quality members, and I see you guys almost as a family of such. Whenever an event or anything of such sort is hosted, I will be one of the first there, since I love participating in such events, as it brings members of the groups closer, and you get to have a lot of fun together.

Of course if there are times where I am unable to take part, such as if there is a serious in real life issue, I will let any leader know if this were to happen, and give them well in advance notice, but other than this, I will be ready to go at any time.

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox Gaming Sector :

When I see the Brotherhood Userbar, I see the userbar of a selective group/family of individuals. Throughout my time here on HackForums, I have seen the group as being on of the best here, as it's never ever let it's name or pride down, by accepting buyins or anything like that.

What I expect from the PS4 Gaming Sector in the Brotherhood is many individuals, whom are active, and also nice people in general. I think for a sector of a group to be active, individuals whom have a passion for gaming, and individuals whom are willing to put a lot of time and effort are needed.

I would expect all members of the PS4 Gaming Sector to be friendly towards all members on HackForums, and especially members who are in The Brotherhood, as they are representing the pride of a high quality usergroup.

Why should you be accepted?

Why should I be accepted? Well, I could go on for hours saying why I would "like" to be accepted, but I understand that The Brotherhood want's to keep their name up to a high standard, and so you guys will be looking for reasons to accept me.

Well firstly, I have always been an enthusiastic gamer, since a very young age. I believe I was about 5 Years Old, when I was given a SEGA controller by my older cousin, and I was playing Sonic. I remember from that day on, my life had changed, I had a new hobby, which was one of the best things to do.

After beginning to game as a child on old consoles such as the SEGA and Nintendo 64, I progressed on to my first proper games console in 2009, the XBOX 360. This console changed my outlook on gaming, as for the first time, I was able to play a game with another person in the world, whilst they weren't sitting next to me. At the time, it was a fascinating thing to me, and I was hooked.

Fast forwarding all the brilliant years of having a lot of fun on my XBOX 360, until two years ago when I purchased an XBOX ONE. I had a good amount of fun with friends on that, but realised the PS4 was better, so I sold it, and bought a PS4 a few months ago.

Since then, I've been playing many games with friends and family, and have been having a really enjoyable experience. Well why is this all important to explain why I should be accepted in to The Brotherhood?

Well, I've explained how games have changed my life as a person, and if you can't already tell, I have a great passion for video games. Whenever I have free time, if I'm not out with friends, or doing something else, I'm playing Video Games.

I believe that The Brotherhood could use someone such as myself, someone who is a normal guy who can interact with other users, someone who likes to make new friends and have fun, and someone who is willing to help anyone out, whatever the case. I also believe that if The Brotherhood accepted me, it would motivate me to change how I am as a user on HF. I would increase how high quality of a member I am on the forum, I would be motivated to host things such as giveaways in the name of the group, to increase recognition etc.

Overall, I believe that I would be a great person to be accepted in to The Brotherhood, as from the way all members from the group describe it, it fits my personality.

Thank you for allowing me to apply for this group, and thank you for your time.

Name: Citium or Jacob. Age: 18 What games do you play? I own both systems Playstation 4, and Xbox One. So I'll go through what games I have for both systems. I do have Gold/ for each system. I play all regularly, but mainly I play Mortal Kombat X, Dying Light, or Black Ops 3.

Xbox One • Mortal Kombat X

- Fallout 4
- Assassin's Creed Unity
- Call of Duty: Black Ops 3
- Advanced Warfare
- Minecraft
- Destiny (DLC as well)
- GTA V
- Madden 16
- Halo Master Chief Edition

Playstation 4

- Dying Light (w/ The Following DLC)
- GTA V
- Madden 15
- Minecraft
- Call of Duty: Black Ops 3

Do you have any competitive experience? Yes, I have tons of competitive experience related to the Call of Duty scene. I played UMG (Competitive site) and MLG/GB (Competitive site). I ranked 10k for UMG, and about 34k for MLG/GB. I played competitively since Black Ops 2, and I just recently stopped playing Black Ops 3 competitive because I needed a break. But yes, I have a good amount of experience related in the competitive scenario.

How much time can you dedicate to gaming nights and community wide events? I can dedicate as much time as needed, I'm regularly home and some nights I'm out with friends. I dedicate myself to gaming, or just messing around on my electronics in general. I have both systems, so I can play with anyone on each and I'm also willing to buy certain games just to play with people and have a fun time. I do have school, but usually I'm up late anyway. So I can dedicate as much time as needed! ?

What do you expect out of the Brotherhood Xbox/PS4 Gaming Sector? What I expect is a great amount of fun and activity, I love to game and I'm hoping I can find people in the Brotherhood to game with. I love to interact with people, even know I mainly lurk on here but gaming is my one true hobby and it's fun playing with people that enjoy it as well. I expect people that are looking for fun inside video games!

Why should you be accepted? I believe I should be accepted because I exemplified how much I really enjoy gaming, and I think I can bring part of the fun factor to the group in the gaming aspect. I enjoy video games to the fullest extent, and if I'm in a group where people enjoy video games like I do it'll bring loads of joy and fun. I also love interacting with people, and I think I could make a great fit with the gaming part of the Brotherhood. I'm looking to have fun and start interacting with people, and being in the Brotherhood would help me achieve this!

Good luck to everyone else that submitted an application!
