Thread: [\[For Sale\] Enigma Leadership](#)

Realizm - March 24, 2016, 6:10 am

Description: An official usergroup leaderspot.

Payment Type: BTC

BIN: $550

Please note that you are required to have approval from zSerity to buy this. The terms and conditions of buying this spot are very laid back, simply follow HF rules and you're all set. You cannot sell buyins with this spot, though if buyins are ever to be sold you will get a split of the profit. You will retain your leadership if the group is rebranded, you may post recruitments, hold giveaways, add whoever you like, etc.

Chubs™ aka badman - March 24, 2016, 6:11 am

Good luck to anyone who buys this! Really worth it.

Ooze - March 24, 2016, 6:18 am

Seems like an interesting buy especial because of this "You will retain your leadership if the group is rebranded"

This is just one spot?

Good buy if you need a bigger edick

Stag - March 24, 2016, 6:21 am

Hope whoever buys the leadership, is as good as a leader as you have been GL with selling the spot 100% worth it ?

Rivalry - March 24, 2016, 12:23 pm

This is one of the few leadership spot sales I can vouch for: Realizm can be trusted, and I know he's only selling because he's very busy irl right now; zSerity is also a great guy and very relaxed; and you're covered even if he re-brands the group. I'd highly recommend grabbing this if you've got the funds!

kamika$e - March 24, 2016, 12:55 pm

Suicide is a better choice than purchasing a leadership spot in a group.

$750 .. ye gtfo

Cyaddd - March 24, 2016, 9:05 pm

People who can't afford it will always judge. Realizm is a great guy and I'd vouch for him any day

Krave - March 24, 2016, 9:10 pm

GLWS. It will be interesting to see a new leader and what plans they have for the group.

SIM-1472133 - March 25, 2016, 3:06 am

Realizm is as legit as it gets, good luck with sales buddy!

chase. - March 25, 2016, 3:07 am

Good luck with sales. Hope who ever buys this is happy!

Remix - March 25, 2016, 3:08 am

What are the advantages of the leader spot?

If you run a recruitment are you able to pick applicants without asking other leaders?

Vitani - March 25, 2016, 3:12 am

This is one of the few HQ groups that will not dissapear any time soon. GLWS bud.

Rick. - March 25, 2016, 3:19 am

Will most likely be buying this very soon. So if/when the group get's rebranded I get to keep the leadership or do I get a refund?

Yes you can do just about anything except break HF rules, go on a scamming spree, or sell buyins lol.

Some of the extra features of becoming a leader of a group that really don't have anything to do with the group specifically is that people asskiss for spots. And quite a few offer their services for free, such as graphics or coding services. Since being a leader, I've had numerous things coded and designed without paying a penny.

There are currently no plans and there has been no discussion of hinting at rebranding. I just added that so people would know that if the group was to change into anything else, you would still be a leader.

Alright. In case of a rebrand, if the new owner doesn't want to keep me leader, do I get a refund or what? Sorry if the questions are repetetive but I'm trying to be safe.

zSerity won't kick you unless you break a rule, which as I stated is just don't sell buyins, don't break

HF rules, and don't scam people. Getting a marketplace violation for posting in the wrong section or raging at somebody won't get you kicked either. We've had leaders get banned for breaking HF rules and they are still leaders so it's fairly laid back. zSerity just doesn't want you going and harassing members and shit. Magicmann was a leader of Crypto for awhile, and then the group changed to Enigma and he retained his leadership, same as the rest of the leaders and myself.

(Mar 25, 2016 05:58 AM)Mr Kewl Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Really something you shouldn't brag about. Lol definitely not bragging, and nothing has profited me as everything that was done free was for Titans Events which are free to play. It just kept money in my pocket when the members helped create the events so I could blow it all on a huge prize list for everyone lol.

I wouldn't exploit people like that, they wanted to help. But it is a perk of being a group owner/leader is that members will do this for you. Been like this for a long time... maybe since groups started.

I really don't see why this is so exaggerated. People blow thousands on awards and somehow that is a good purchase however?

If you have enough money, what's the problem?

Six Double 0 - March 25, 2016, 8:48 am

I haven't said that's a good purchase lol but that's irrelevant.

You've only got to look back at past groups and even current ones when majority of leadership spots being sold has ended up in the deal dispute section.

If you're buying a leadership spot for attention and for people to suck up to you then this right for you, but beware at any moment greivous could move on to sucking another dick when he refreshes the group page and realises you're no longer there as the group has been sold or just removed.

Grammar Rays - March 25, 2016, 9:03 am

What if the owner sells the group on to another owner?

Would it be part of the agreement that your leadership follows or would you get a refund via the money the group is sold for?

Asking for clarification for others, I have no interest in buying into this.

Lets imagine someone buys the spot and next month something happens and zSernity decides to sell the group
The buyer wouldn't get a refund?

The spot is worth it. $750 is the right figure as the norm is $1000 per leadership spot. For what its worth, I'd say go for it if you have the time to put in in order to recollect your initial funds.

Currently, you can open up services/programs under the group to earn a profit. However in the future if member spots are sold you will get a percentage of each spot sold.
Along with the ability to sell your leadership after a few months of purchasing.
