"You will save 70% on the custom jacket just for buying my E book"

I don't understand, why would we need a discount if this lets us get the clothes for free?

And you say clothes in a very broad manner. What is this limited to, a graphic printing site?

In your case, yes they do.

I received a vouch copy from OP for a review.

OP Should have stated that you DO need a CC, and you DO need an investment.

I downloaded the PDF and OP made a nice and clear E-book. It was written in perfect English, couldn't find any spelling mistakes.

I believe that this method will work if you put some effort into it. Don't expect to get 25 T-shirts in 2 days or something. It will get you a decent amount of clothes in a decent amount of time. I will personally not be testing this method but I have read through enough E-books to know that this method will work.

Does this method involve SEing a refund? Or any SEing at all? Any chances of this getting patched?
