Thread: Anyone served time in prison?

RootBite - March 28, 2016, 8:00 pm

Only ask because my uncle is serving 16 years for
A count of Manslaughter (apparently sold xanax and someone died)

Having heroin with intent to sell

And not changing his address as a violent offender.

He's pleading to 16 since they could serve him up 20-23 if check he says he isn't gully and is found guilty

Sucks whats happening to your uncle, but I tend not to affiliate myself with many wrong doings to the point of jail time.

yeah this one time i ddosed this faggot on xbox and did 30 in a federal penitentiary

I haven't personally served time, but my cousin did and he's told me it's really not worth it.

16 years doesn't sound like a lot but put it into perspective, I'm only 16 and that would be my whole life lived over again.
