I made my first tag yesterday, it was Erza Scarlet from Fairy Tail. It wasn't that good, but thanks to Ayahuasca for all the help and tips.

Here's my second tag, Ken Kaneki from Tokyo Ghoul:

The only problem with using the reds everywhere is the focal point becomes very unclear. I would tone down some of the reds in the background as it seems your intending focal point is the eye which becomes overlooked and conflicted with the bright red to the upper left.

True, will take care of this in my next one, thanks! :)
