Manual Purchases

After you purchase your desired pack, you should PM me in order to grab your copy. Every order can delay 24-72 hours depending on the purchases queue. During that time, your information including you HF profile & PayPal info will be stored in our database along with your serial code

LeakProof Pentagon & Updates

Pentagon Secrets is not a project we will let you leak out. It's our hard work, and it won't get thrown by anyone.

In order to prevent it from leaking, all orders will be handled manually so profiles / paypal ID's can be stored in our database in case of possible T.O.S breaking.

Project copies are limited as well in order to handle it easier.

In every purchase a single serial code will be given, in order to catch up newer updates.

You can only use your own key to get them, after I match it with your purchase info

Copies Ammount & Update System

As said before, copies are limited in order to handle the project easier.

Copies are currently restricted to 70 pieces.

Thread will remain open after selling out so updates system can work.

Sales may start again in the future.

In order to catch up your updates if you are already a customer of ours just pm me your serial code and the update you are asking for.
