Seasonal - April 4, 2016, 12:29 am

Please take the time to read the full post before posting.

Before anyone asks. There is only (1) vouch copy to whoever I deem "trusted" enough to leave a review. Edit Vouch copy is given to Walt Disney™.

First 3 customers get ONE month subscription for only $10!

US and Canada only at this time.

Monthly subscription box includes: You'll get an exciting themed monthly 420 box of awesome, full size smoking essentials and other cool stoney gear for less than $15.

All subscription boxes will include a tracking number.

All subscription boxes will be shipped out on the 14th of each month and should arrive to everyone within 3-5 business days.

If I can eventually find a way to get the costs of shipping world wide down, it'll eventually be for everyone.

Highly interested in this. I currently get two sub boxes, and wouldn't mind another.

How's the legality of this? I'm sure it's illegal in some states for people under 18. (HI for example)
How would you confirm their age?

Have an example box? Clothes, tobacco product, glass, wax/bud paraphernalia? I've bought a few monthly boxes to get junk and socks. (I have 40+ pairs of socks thanks to sub boxes)

CommanderBoss - April 4, 2016, 11:32 am

I'm interested in the vouch box if you deem me trusted enough.

Confirming there age, maybe by asking them to blink out their personal information and show their age and then with their face and them holding it.

Otherwise, unsure at this time for that.

Example: In each box, there will be total of about 10 things. Sometimes less, sometimes more. Box will include hemp wick, 2-3 pieces of glass, stickers, t-shirt, sometimes joggers, blunt/rolling paper and few other surprise items.

We aren't including anything paraphernalia since most states don't allow that to ship across states.

Honestly all you should really do is make them agree in print (or online text xD) that they are over 18 for example in the terms of service you could put:

You agree that you are over 18 (Yes/No): Yes

That way you wont get into trouble because as far as you were concerned the person is over 18 this would save your customers the hassle, it would allow u18 people to take the fall if they decide to buy, etc.

Thanks for the suggestion man.

Vouch copy is being given to Walt Disney™.

All packages are shipped out by 14th, tracking is always included.

We aren't including anything paraphernalia since most states don't allow that to ship across states. Just letting you know that most of what you listed is considered paraphernalia in most states, especially ones with strict laws. For example, I live in New Jersey and any sort of pipe, paper, or device that can be used to consume or help consume illicit substances (even things like tobacco pipes and wicks) are considered paraphernalia and you have to be 19 (not 18) just to possess them even if being used legally (like for tobacco).

That being said, I've bought domestic glassware from other states on legit websites without any issues. I think with shipping/legalities it depends more on the product's intended use than anything else (ex. you have to market a bowl as usable with legal smoking herbs only). Also, users who lie about their age are at fault and not you. Sorry to go on a rant but I wanted to explain everything clearly so as to be of maximum assistance.

Will do man. Hoping they come through as I'm pretty sure most members are from UK or other parts. (I personally don't know many that are from US.)

Thank you. ?

First 3 customers can get there box for only $10! Amazing deal right?

All box's are being custom made with design on them now as well. Also waiting approval to use the logo of the site to put on the side of the box or cover of box.

Edit: Logo request was denied; however they will still be custom made boxes. Just without the HF logo (no big deal hehe)

Custom boxes won't be done and sent to me till next month (lol) so this is what they will look like next month when they are shipped out to subscribers.

(Thanks to Morty for allowing the use of his signature ;))

update: they will be dark blue boxes, with that image on them.

Worldwide shipping is now available, however if you are outside of the US-Canada I cannot promise that it will be there within the 3-5 day period..

Seasonal - April 9, 2016, 12:03 am

People who paid for this month are still going to get there boxes. However from this moment forward, I can only accept BTC.

I know how this may suck for some people but due to Paypal limiting my business account for "breaking t.o.s" (yet the account was just for these sales..)

Until I can figure something out with the paypal thing. I can only accept BTC.

Edit: Paypal is now being accepted again.

Seasonal - April 13, 2016, 8:50 pm

If you want to order this would be the time to, boxes going out in few days for this month.

Seasonal - April 16, 2016, 6:28 am

If you paid me with Paypal, please contact me. All subscription boxes have now been shipped.

Due to the nature of this box, and legal cases I have going on. I am shutting it down for now, it had barely any interest anyway.

Closing this now.
