Hack the school's AD server, use Group Policy to change the background of every computer in the school to gay porn.

That would be funny for me, but not for my class mates :D I need something like. Hey guys Did you know that you can buy cigarettes in school buffet. Almost everybody in our school smokes so imagine that everybody is trying to buy cigarettes but there are non. We have a opportunity to do prank for real because its our homework so give me some good advices :D

If your school has fountains, put a bunch of industrial grade dish soap in it. Someone did that for a senior prank at my school, was funny af watching it bubble all day. (plus you're doing them a favor by cleaning it)

Another kid stole one of those huge inflatables on Burger King and put it on our school. (he got arrested, but worth it)

Have about a class dress in shrek masks. You walk around solo and play the Shrek theme song and when it gets to the part of "and they don't stop coming" (on repeat), the other classmates come out with radios and shrek masks and start playing the Shrek theme song aswell. :D
