I want to apply so bad but it will probably be cringey af lol.

Won't be joining as I'm not a weeaboo, but do anime fans really need to create userscripts at least once a week?

Why is this relevant to an Anime section?

Why should you be accepted : because i like anime, been watching it for at least 6 years, maybe even 7. I have no idea on how many ive watched but +200, at least. Ive really been thinking that i may even be addicted tbh. I don't really hate on different animes, ofc there are some i dont like but i dont get mad at people if they like it. Also because im a nice guy, i like being friendly and help other people if it can make their day.

It would also be awesome to get to know some new people on here, the only people i really talked to on hf is banned or left a long time ago, im always up for some chit chat, i also like being a part of smaller communities.

Are you willing to help with some group activities : Sure! That would be my pleasure, like why not? Especially if its something that can make the group members become 'closer' then definitely and im also up for some group giveaways(drop some money into it) when i get paid ofc. or just some contests/events.

Thanks for reading my application and for taking your time.

best regards :')))

edit: i would make the text a bit smaller but my phone wont let me do it right now

Why should you be accepted : I'm a groomed Anime fanatic, born and raised in the dango dango farms along with my trusty friend Kon where we fight against the villainous demons in Karakura Town on a day to day basis. Why should you be accepted : Because I am really interested in anime and manga - everything from the art style, stories and being able to talk to the community about it. My most posted in forum on here is Anime Adventures and it was honestly probably the reason I created a HF account all those years ago. I love discussing it all, even at times I have thought about teaming up with an artist and making my own animation for a while; it's one of my passions and I love it.

Are you willing to help with some group activities : I am willing to make lots of threads, get involved in all community events. I would love to see what others think of the anime I love and learn more about the anime I haven't yet experienced. I hope to have a lot of fun with you guys :)

Name & profile link : Zach (Ayahuasca) Profile Link

Age : 18

Why should you be accepted : I've been watching anime since I was a child, staying up late watching toonami with my friends (Inyuasha, Cowboy bebop, Naruto, etc) made me not think about anything bad that happened(s) back then. It helped me cope and it still does today. I'm an avid watcher, and I don't care who knows. Even on a community like HF where 'weaboos' are frowned upon and ridiculed. I remember when I joined HF I saw "AnimeFAN!" recruiting, I was ecstatic and I made an application, sadly got denied but now I feel the same excited feeling once I saw this thread. I want to be in this group, I would love to be in this group. If you don't accept me today, I'll just keep striving to be accepted. (Obviously not begging/annoying anyone) I want to get to know people who have Anime interests, as none of my friends nowadays enjoy Anime. Sharing our favorite Animes, talking about upcomings, and even sharing our favorite openings/ending music. I want to be to do all of this with a group that would actually listen and comment, this is why I want to join The Brotherhood Anime sector.

As for why you should let me join, I'll list two reasons as I don't see any reason to post more since it's an Anime sector(Meaning any of my abilities/talents wouldn't really matter):

- I would be extremely active, posting recent watches and even posting reviews.
- I'm a friendly and comedic guy(self claimed)

Are you willing to help with some group activities : Yes, of course! I would strive to participate in any group activity that I can actually help with.

Thanks for reading my application, I really hope I'm accepted as this has been what I've been looking for!
