Thread: new donation from Red Lions group to HF 1200 \$

nokia2mon2 - April 7, 2016, 6:27 pm

i donated 1000 $ on the name of my group to HF .

we try our best to support HF as best as we can.

why i announced that?

1- Its in the name of the Red Lions group.. In order to explain a group's activities and effectiveness.
Yeye

2- To encourage others to act the same thing.

3- omni is the great boss i ever see in all the forums, he deserve from us all to support his great work.

4- Because i love the scene Tongue

5- i missed the heaters :) and i need a new advice about Charity and the way that i must spend my money etc etc Yeye :D Yeye

cheers HF

I'm glad you donate to HF, but putting it in the name of RedLions makes it seem like the group is still relevant when it's been dead since Glassy went inactive. Other than an updated member base, the group does nothing except give the still active members a userbar. You should really stick around for like a week to see who would be decent replacements for your already new replacement for Glassy... aka Alone Vampire.

But yeah, you might as well just donate on the behalf of HF and yourself.

The point is that they spend money on other awards instead. Look at Bull, he bought every award he has. Awards cost hundreds into the thousands. People donate but nobody actually cares to get multiple Grand Awards when they can simply buy different ones.

1. The guy is never online

This almost sounds like an advertisement for others to donate more on hackforums.

However not trying to stir anything, just felt like placing some personal thoughts. Lol I came up with the same thought a few years ago. It doesn't make sense anymore for Omni to pose as Nokia donating as the site is big enough to pull in that kinda revenue easy. But back when Nokia first joined, this encouraged a lot of members to get into the donating scene and most likely helped Omni, his income, and HF all together in a very wealthy way lol.

Granny Bacon - April 8, 2016, 10:28 am

Members demands Nokia to help orphans or homeless people when they don't even do that themselves.

I swear on my life, 80% of the people telling him to donate to better things, don't do anything with their money themselves.

You walk past 100s of homeless people everyday, still you can't even talk to them, you just minding your own business.

And FYI, I am included, but I don't tell Nokia what to do with his money, it's his money, his choices.

The double-standards is fucking huge here.

I swear on my life, 80% of the people telling him to donate to better things, don't do anything with their money themselves.

You walk past 100s of homeless people everyday, still you can't even talk to them, you just minding your own business.

Just because you're not the best at something (in this case, unable to do something) doesn't mean that you can't criticize a person.

You're absolutely right, but don't you think it's double standards to tell someone to donate to the homeless if they don't do it themselves?

If they had the disposable income to donate dozens of thousands of dollars to an Internet forum, I'm sure they would. They're just suggesting that nokia2mon2 donate his money to charity and there's nothing wrong with that.

Ambien - April 8, 2016, 10:52 am

If he's close to bin Salman, he's a man with a good heart. Those guys been kicking ass with the reforms in their country. Didn't they recently aggressively detain and torture the past higher ups? Some kind of coup? I wonder if Nokia had anything to do with it.

Intriguing.

I was shocked that HF has no clue who's this guy, even tho he was exposed back in 2017, he was trending all over twitter that day, he kept using the members of this forum for evil things, did you know that all the people who has been hacked are now being tortured or worse, killed? People don't gives a fuck here as long as he paid them shit loads of money.
