If you have something in your oven or just taken out please post your pic.

minimalist - April 9, 2016, 2:00 pm

Should I capture a pic of this sheet of aluminum foil or would that be boring and redundant?

Here's the crap that's left of my chicken fingers...should probably make some real food.

Who Soup - April 9, 2016, 2:01 pm

What is that? chicken with some kind of herb/sesame seed dry rub?

EDIT:

I'm actually finishing this in the oven (if that counts)

Made a Rosemary lemon chicken with potatoes and carrots

Damn that looks really good. Might try to make jalapeno poppers for my cooking final. Do you have a recipe somewhere?

Grammar Rays - April 9, 2016, 2:04 pm

I just ate steak but never took a picture this time.

Sirloin, peppercorn sauce, chips (fries!) with seasoning, tomatoes and rocket (lettuce).

Here's one from my thread:

i just burned my hand while i threw a piece of chicken in it

Omniscient - April 9, 2016, 3:50 pm

My chicken came out fantastic. I used fresh Rosemary from one of the bushes we have outside. Rosemary grows very well in the desert and it's all over Vegas just planted in yards as a regular bush.

I just went to dentist today cause I got a sore wisdom tooth. May have to get it extracted in a few days if pain continues. Have to get an oral surgeon to do it lol cause its so close to a nerve.

Did they prescribe pain meds?
