I think Isabelle Fuhrmann has awesome acting skills, even as a child.

Cool, feel like most of the horror movies these days are a bit tiresome.

Yup i feel the same. Luckily this film wasnt like Saw or smth where there is no real plot but only loads of gore and shit. I think the film Orphan is unique, thats why im sharing it :3

Orphan is a good twist as long as you haven't heard anything about it before you watch it, the twist i'd go with orphan
