I wanna buy a black hoodie, zip-up, or like lightweight thingie.

I usually use Tillys.com but I haven't really found anything on there, does anyone have any other suggestions?

Im not even bullshitting, go to goodwill and you'll find a lot of vintage windbreakers. That's wear I get mine from.

We have a shop around here called "Savers" and I can honestly say I've probably bought like 30% of my wardrobe from there but no one would ever know.

Glad I'm not the only one haha, always trynna save.

Yes! savers, Goodwill, and unique! I get my favorite windbreakers from thrift shops such as these!
