It's a great song buddy. It's a heavy song but your buddy needs a better mic hehe.
The quality of the song could've been better.
But trust me, it's not bad, keep it up!

The quality of the voice is kinda off (bad mic probably), also sometimes it sounds like he is "singin" slightly ahead of the beat.

Also the "chorus" if I may call it that, sounds like it's a 2 second long loop and that makes it very annoying to listen to imho.

Musically I'd rate this a 2/10 but considering what we hear on the radio today it's a solid 5/10.

I see there's latency over there and the loop is very boring tell him to get an audio interface it the song is awesome ;)
