Thread: UPDATED: Scammed for 100\$ - Biblical - First deal on HackForums! - UID: 3003559

BassBoostOfficial - April 12, 2016, 10:45 pm

Hey!

I sold my old steam account to the user Gawdd (NEW NAME BIBLICAL!) yesterday. The Steam account was special as it had a pin, level 51 and Global Elite elo on CSGO. I accepted the offer and he continued discussing on Skype.

Thanks in advance!

Hey, PM me. I will help you get your steam account back man. Sucks to get scammed on your very first deal.

TheSuspect - April 13, 2016, 1:42 am

Shit like this pisses me off, good on ya for knowing to make a scam report. Probably thought if he picked on a new user ya wouldn't do much about it.

Pluxo - April 13, 2016, 5:25 am

Please let us know he changed his name to "Michael" and also paste his UID and profile link in the OP.

Amyzing - April 13, 2016, 5:33 am

Hope you get your account back OP!

BassBoostOfficial - April 13, 2016, 9:57 am

He blocked me on Skype... It seems I have no hope left :/

This fucking sucks.

I hope TheChief has given you good advice on how to get back your steam account. I'm gifting you L33T as a token of my sympathy. Best of luck with your dealings in the future friend.

So sorry for your loss. I've added the user into the HFAAlert DB and hopefully no more damage will happen. Lets get him off of HF guys.

That's so kind of you man. And I did give him advice but he didn't wanna do it as he thought "it didn't make sense" . Hopefully he comes to his senses and does what I told him
