DISCUSS RELEVANT TOPICS PEOPLE!

This has been one of my favorite videos to watch anytime i'm in a low, because its not a lie we live in, its the way the government and corporations bend and twist and scheme the media and everything that goes on in the country to keep us mindfucked and in fear/government control. Activists fighting it are labeled extremists, and those who try to commit and create real change, are actively murdered, hushed, or otherwise disposed of. The system needs to change.?

Exactly, the government lie to us.

We live in lies from media and government.

?Alexander - April 13, 2016, 7:25 am damn the government is lying to us i also guess pancakes are purple and my anus doesn't smell like shit void account - April 13, 2016, 7:31 am

This is so ironic that it's hilarious. This is the mindset the "government" wants people to have - scared, paranoid and blaming the government about not being able to achieve anything when in reality people are too fucking lazy to do so. What a joke videos like this are.

BlueZebra - April 13, 2016, 7:41 am

I don't mean to offend, but since both of you above were rather rude,

I'm not sure how you can be SO ignorant. The government has controlled the media since the start of time. You only see what THEY WANT YOU TO SEE. I'm not saying the feds need to pay for all my meals and give me a new ferrari every month, but being honest to their own people about current events, making progress that can be proven done with statistics/facts.

Instead, they have turned the "Presidential Campaign" into a public joke, essentially gauging "who can get more followers" ie: Trump/Clinton.

/counter?

Would say the same thing but my english level it too low to express myself without being bashed about my grammer.

Totally support you 100%. You got my back ?

My counter is that anyone who agrees with you is either a prepubescent teenager that knows nothing about how the world works OR an adult that has achieved nothing and is looking for external blame factors to mitigate their disgust for what they've allowed themselves to become.

I will not respond to this thread further because I know what will come next: "but the goberment dude they r taking away ur freedom time 2 start a revolutin!!!! down wit the gobermont!"

lol the fact that your only argument is about what my characteristics may or may not be, proves to anyone reading this thread the trouble we are in. Be more self aware, and less of a douchebag ?

BlueZebra back again with those awesome arguments.

Sorry, I gave you cancer. Forgive me. I hate Vine.

Raised not to make a difference? That is the complete opposite of what we are raised to be. If you go to school and work hard and study, work very hard, you will be able to change the world. I however do get the point of the video and it has a very true point.

The Boogeyman - April 13, 2016, 7:56 am

The Government telling lies and hiding things from us has never been a new standard for them.

Alterations - April 13, 2016, 8:03 am

911 - Number to call the police

9/11 - Terrorist attack (bush did it) on the $5 bill (USD) the twin towers are shown if folded the right way.

Government corruption. Illuminati?

We shall never know for sure. ;)

Pebis - April 13, 2016, 1:50 pm

I agree with the video, but not much will change. Humans are leeches.

OkFu - April 13, 2016, 1:58 pm

This is fucking great, I sent this to my girlfriend.

kataro - April 13, 2016, 2:00 pm

I have just hope to be able to live this planet and people some day :)

^And yet 99% will not make the change they want and finish just like what you've been taught too working 8+ hours a day return into a home that you're paying with a very high mortgage and only use it to sleep most of the time...

Rinse and repeat... This is also one of the reasons politicians are so against manny nomadic cultures they are more free don't have to pay the rent for there camper [atleast not after payn in but still it's not as expensive as a house]bills for there water etc... they just purchase what they need on the moment be it a tank of water or a tank of propane they don't have to be forcefully leeched to the system that makes you pay outrageous bills for a low quality service.

It has been proven that a Nomad can leave a very decent life only with a part time job and has much more time to do what he likes be it study or anything else and also has a great experience doing any type of job he finds.

NOTE: many are unfortunately known for robbing, due to guess who? exactly MEDIA though despite what they tell you on 2 or 3 gypsies that commit felonies there are tens more that are good civilians....

Yuikoro - April 13, 2016, 2:12 pm

To me, the only lie we live is getting emotionally involved with shit like this. Every side holds their own truths and their own lies, therefore wholly believing any one side based off what one has seen and experienced on a personal matter holds its own bias and its own lies, held in distraught through emotional and circumstantial choice.

In other words, I don't give a shit if we live a lie, I care about how happy I am with it. Tell me, is the value of truth worth it if the person who was ignorant gets mad, where the only true direct change is how they feel? To put it in example, if you are with an elderly man on his deathbed and he asks how his son- who's passed- is, would he be better off knowing that his son has actually passed or with the lie that his son is alive and doing well? To me, I believe the latter.
