I have listed 4 useful sites/software to trace mobile number in India.

1. Wiki page:

Wiki contains mobile numbering system which contains a list of phone numbers and their network operators with locations. Thus, only first 4 digits of target phone number can be useful to trace mobile number in India using this mobile numbering system.

Check out Wiki page here.

2. Internet4Mobile:

If you want an automated system to trace mobile number, use this service provided by Internet4Mobile. There are many similar services available on web, but I recommend this one as it provides you following information about Mobile number:

- State
- City (only provided by this service).
- Operator
- Locate mobile number on Google Maps.

Trace mobile number using Internet4Mobile here.

3. Mobile Tracking Software:

Well, if you want to trace a mobile number in India directly from your cell phone, you can use Mobile phone application - Mobile Number Locator. This application allows you to find mobile number location right from your cellphone.

Download Mobile Number Locator to trace mobile number in India.
