

Forum: Hack Forums

Thread: Outbreak Company

Aura - April 15, 2016, 4:29 pm

Quote: Having a light novel author father and an eroge illustrator mother, Kanou Shinichi is a thoroughbred otaku. However he does not have any special power except for his broad knowledge, sharp insight, and impeccable instinct about "MOE" and its products, from manga to anime to games to light novel to figures. One day he found himself transported to a fantasy world where elves live and dragons fly. And he is given a task—not to fight monster or embark on a quest, but to enhance cultural exchange by becoming a "moe missionary" in this fantasy world! He meets a palace guard who has a bit of fujoshi taste, a half-elf maid, and the empress who is a little girl. He comes up with the idea of building a school. At first it runs as a comedy but later there are serious matters that Shinichi needs to face: ethnic discrimination, social problems, conflict with neighboring countries, sabotage by opposition elements including Japanese government, etc. Can he overcome the obstacles, successfully bring "moe" culture to the fantasy world, and help the people there as well?

Source: http://myanimelist.net/anime/19369/Outbreak_Company?q=outbreak%20compan

Season(s): 1

Episode(s): 12

Awesome Anime, I recommend.

Also, is it me or the opening have a kind of nostalgic/old touch to it?

CorrosiveBlueberry - April 16, 2016, 5:15 am

It's really good IMO, i plan to finish it soon however stopped on episode 5 as i picked up Pandora hearts yesterday and watched 20/25 episodes and it is AMAZING. most likely plan to finish outbreak company next though, although in the past few days i have DL'd 1TB of anime series i haven't seen before so i have tons of stuff to watch on my plex