Thread: Young Donald \(UID: 1859589\) ::: Carding items?

Sevn Alias - April 16, 2016, 1:26 am

Hello,

This guy: Young Donald has recently opened a electronic shop. I don't recommend you guys to buy of him. His items might be carded. I will show all proof in this thread. Let we go!

So, a week ago i contacted him on skype and i asked him: "can you get all items"? he said: "yes". This is really sketchy right? How can a person get every item and he is paying with his own money he said? This doesn't make sense at all.

His sale thread:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5205312>

User profile:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1859589>

Here some screenshots:

<http://prnt.sc/asvs3p> - How can you buy any item with your own money??

<http://prnt.sc/asvt07>

<http://prnt.sc/asvt7x> - Sketchy right?....

I wouldn't deal with this user untill he show proof how he get these items. He is ignoring customers and buyers who want to get proof of how your items are obtained. He didn't answered at all and just ignored them. I am not here to trash your sale thread. But you should show proof of how your items are obtained. I will leave this community alert open untill you show us proof? For now don't deal with this user guys!

Seems like a very sketchy user. Seems his limit is $1k to make the carding a bit more "ease of use". Thank you for posting this. Will post this thread on his sales thread.

Yes, his limit is indeed 1k. If he do higher his cards will be burned lmao.

Yup,it's a bit shady,and why would someone buy like 1000$ things with his money and sell it for 65% .-.?

B33N - April 16, 2016, 1:41 am

He tried to claim he was buying wholesale, but how are you buying wholesale if you are willing to purchase something directly from eBay? Does not even make sense. Hope Omni takes a look at this and gets rid of this parasite.

Yes, doesn't make sense at all. People will get in problems if the card holder chargeback all the payments.

HIGH PAID FELLA - April 16, 2016, 3:29 am

Request proof of item in his hands so you know he does not directly ship from the frauded source. No problems then, otherwise DWC.

Stashyy - April 16, 2016, 3:31 am

Probably isn't carding he's just buying off eBay then refunding it or he's getting it on amazon and doing the same thing.

I doubt he's getting it with his own money. That's an easy giveaway.

Why going through the trouble of shipping it then when you can sell locally for cash?

Subby101 - April 16, 2016, 3:35 am

I would just like to let you guys know, if you did buy anything from him.. You won't get in trouble.

If he is carding items he would send the items to a drop, then he would pick them up from a drop or get them shipped to him. He would then send them from his own house to you (so there would be no connection between you and the items).

That is if he did card the items.

He isn't shipping it, he's most likely putting the HF members addy then "buying" it. Once it arrives he refunds it. Simple Yeah people on HF aren't smart when it comes to that. They just send it to the persons house if they did the order.

How would you know what he would do? If he had a reliable drop don't you think he'd be selling the shit on ebay or amazon or CL for more?

Sell it locally to people who know him in real life and can turn him over to the police if the goods are carded

Good point, maybe personal preference is the reason he's on HF then and tbh he could be on eBay and Amazon we don't actually know if he isn't.

HF could be buisness on the side.

Just pointing out. This is all hypothetical, he might be carding items

Lol? Your argument makes no sense, first of all, you are never gonna ship it directly to these people so police would never be able to contact them. 2nd of all, just get a fake Facebook account or Craigslist and get it sold there?

People find all types of ways to get sellers in trouble for BS.

Even if he was carding not saying he is nor isn't why would he say so?

Why would he admit that he is? ?

A shady character indeed. Either he's looking to scam those bold enough to do the deal without a middleman or he's just got terrible management of his operation.

"ebooks" on "blackhat" what are all the same thing. Who cards Amazon please. If he is reselling high then hes still earning profit but still lots of people do, do it.

Everyone shut your mouth.

He most likely isn't carding these items but exercising what I'll explain here.

- 1) You set up and order.
- 2) He buys your item with an Amazon gift card and it gets shipped to you directly.
- 3) Item arrives at your place.
- 4) He complains to Amazon and receives a refund.
