There are minecon capes worth 200$ I'm pretty sure, this would probably worth more. Not sure if something like this has ever been sold, gl on getting an appraisal op.

thataasianboy - April 17, 2016, 10:24 pm

Isn't there like only 30 of these?..

eyeShockk - April 18, 2016, 12:40 am

Has to be worth way more than $200, they're super exclusive. The right buyer would probably pay a fuckload of money for such a cape.

-?MW- - April 21, 2016, 12:49 am

Only 29 of these capes were given out. I think you could easily get over at least 1k for this....

Amnesia420 - April 22, 2016, 6:29 am

Just buy a optifine cape for 10€ donation :)

Albino - April 22, 2016, 6:57 am

Ignore all the under 1k appraisals. Minecon 2011 capes can be sold for 800 and upwards of 1200 to the right buyer. This is far rarer, also what one do you have and do you have proof?

That's stupid.

Imao i bought one for $100

you'd LITERALLY be getting a ripped and teared asshole if someone sold you a 2011 cape for $1k

I've also cracked 3 minecon accounts.
mojang locked them all because of the security update.

AllHax0Skills - April 23, 2016, 4:18 am

Look at this shit http://minecraft . gamepedia . com/Cape

I call bullshit considering 2011 capes are extremely rare now let alone just a code and them not being attached to an account already.

Fish - April 23, 2016, 1:40 pm

First of all, there are no "codes" for 2011 capcs because all capcs were distributed on their usernames, not by email.

Second of all, you're completely wrong. The reason why people were selling them dirt cheap is because they were cracked. And a lot of them were being locked / taken back. I had 3 accounts locked / taken back.

lilcake - January 8, 2019, 1:23 pm
