Thread: HackerCraft Blue Award

Omniscient - April 20, 2016, 12:11 pm

In order to help pay server costs I've added an award for purchase that will directly be used to support the HackerCraft server.

It's only $15 BTC and hopefully we sell enough to pay server costs each month. It's about $160-$180 a month to cover all expenses.

I will take the BTC funds and monthly send them to the server owner for payment directly to the host.

If server goes offline or HC ends I will remove the award from purchase. If we cover at least 3 months worth of expenses I will suspend sale of the award until we need more funds.

There has also been 2 months of existing server costs that need to be repaid to server owner. Hoping to earn enough to repay that as well.

Enjoy.

EDIT: Suppose some of you aren't aware of the Buy Awards page.

This is the moment you wish you had $15 BTC. Would be so dope to get that.

Realizm - April 20, 2016, 12:16 pm

Nice way to make money to pay for the server, now they need another award for purchase using IGM to help increase activity.

Night - April 20, 2016, 12:18 pm

This is a good way to help the server costs. I'm about to get this in a little bit.

Krave - April 20, 2016, 12:19 pm

Awesome stuff. I haven't played HC a lot but that doesn't mean I don't support it. Buying it for me and friends now.

Pharcyde - April 20, 2016, 12:20 pm

Awesome, I shall buy it in a few hours then. ;)

Suspense - April 20, 2016, 12:22 pm

I had a feeling that an award would show up sooner or later.

Just donated for it. I was hoping for a red award this time, but I honestly think the blue looks just as good.

If your only reason is to purchase the award to donate, just make a members contest thread. And buy like 2 people the award to contribute, if that works?

Tando - April 20, 2016, 1:23 pm

Just got my award.

I'm pretty satisfied with the way it looks, I like the color blue a lot. I like how it's a cube with a face on it that's made out of additional cubes, but that's Minecraft and they have that pixelated cartoonish look which is pretty nice. One more award for my and I've grown my e-Weiner to 2 lines, thank god.

My god I'm a tool, as soon as I heard that there was a new award I hit "purchase" instantly. Oh well Omni got me again.

'Suicide - April 20, 2016, 1:28 pm

Heads up. Omni if you want to make more $ make it so that people can buy the old Minecraft Heads. It'll look good for newbies like me.

Regulus - April 20, 2016, 1:31 pm

Just received mine. I barely know what HackerCraft it but bought it to show support. (And because Krave convinced me) ?

Nonetheless the cost will go straight to supporting the server for us existing players, that's good to hear.

How does that suck? It's like many other awards that you pay for to get and you are supporting HF's Minecraft server at the same time. I don't see how that sucks.

Nothing to run away from, haven't pocketed nor thought about profiting from hackercraft.

If he's referring to the 'ranks' that will be achievable by the quests that's coming in a future update, then no.

You don't need to worry the server is not receiving donations from what I know.

But from what I have heard there is going to be some type of ranking system that can be achieved through achievements in game or was it In-Game Money? I haven't received any type of confirmation on how this would work out.

Arkantos - April 20, 2016, 4:02 pm
