Thread: What would you do as hackforums owner ?

lexors - April 24, 2016, 8:44 am

You're the new owner, what would you do ? ?

Vulstorm - April 24, 2016, 8:45 am

Probably update the interface of the website, I dont know.

Miniature - April 24, 2016, 8:45 am

Accept every uber request, I'll make like 5k a day

Great idea.

i'd prob do the same thing lmao

LilKil - April 24, 2016, 8:46 am

Ermhhh, will try to keep the community happy I guess. Like he does now :D

Ricky Quinn - April 24, 2016, 8:47 am

I would be rich because everyone would donate xD

DeltaSeven - April 24, 2016, 8:48 am

I would create a new group and let people buy it. Highest bidder wins.

Raijin - April 24, 2016, 8:48 am

I would find Omni wherever he is and return the site.

Heart - April 24, 2016, 8:49 am

Sell all awards and upgrades for $2/each and close the site the following day.

EagleScream - April 24, 2016, 8:50 am

Ban Regulus :) That's what I would do :) rip grandpa :)

lexors - April 24, 2016, 8:51 am

haha, that's funny

h-boy - April 24, 2016, 9:02 am

Revert to old style theme, restore discussions on black hat topics and probably bring back some of the old official groups.

FiftyTwo - April 24, 2016, 9:05 am

I'd make the prices of ranks and awards cheaper.

I'd also create a new user group that gives the features of UB3R, L33T and 3P1C and maybe some more features there.

MD5 - April 24, 2016, 9:10 am

I'd definitely create a fake MM account and litterally scam the fuck out of my fuckbuddy regulus

Silent Uprising - April 24, 2016, 9:59 am

(Apr 24, 2016 08:48 AM) Raijin Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I would find Omni wherever he is and return the site. Why the fuck would you give this site back to a previous owner for free? This thread title implies the hypothetical situation that you are the owner of HF...why would you do that lmao.

Edit: And what I would do is most likely regulate the market place and charge a small tax for each sale. And keep everything else the way it is until I gain more knowledge on ways I can monetize the site without ruining it.

Omni has already said he's upgrading to 1.8x

O t t o - April 24, 2016, 10:03 am

I'd bring back Blackhat discussion.

Sir Neko - April 24, 2016, 10:06 am

Hire somebody to do the work Omni does and just rack in the cash.

Banana - April 24, 2016, 10:06 am

Add a couple new awards ranging in the 20s, 30s, 40s, etc. Extra income :)

Kevn - April 24, 2016, 10:06 am

Why would you ban him

(Apr 24, 2016 08:45 AM) Miniature Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Accept every uber request, I'll make like 5k a day I think doing so would be bad in the end, everyone would just show how much their e-dicks grown by negging eachother and whatnot. The abuse would be real then. Lol.

Vulstorm - April 24, 2016, 10:07 am

Scamming as an owner would be the most asshole move in the world lmfao

Ahri????? - April 24, 2016, 10:10 am

Blacklist every developing country and end the sale of ub3r. Require any new account registration to verify via phone verification.

Governor - April 24, 2016, 10:56 am

I would make so much bank from this site you wouldn't understand.

I also would give free l33t to all members and if they wanted to upgrade it would cost $10.00 PP. I personally think I'd be a great owner, however, Omni is doing a great job.

Scar?face - April 24, 2016, 11:50 am

Make a new usergroup above Ub3r that costs more to join and is more selective, make ub3r no longer selective and accept pretty much everyone so a lot of people upgrade and I make a lot of money from people upgrading to the new selective usergroup and ub3r, make two new groups to sell, probably have some new themes made for the site, most likely with colour change abilities so people can have it how they want it.

You mean $20.

The Scam Hunter - April 24, 2016, 11:58 am

I'll turn it into 'Limeroad' if you know what I mean. ;)

SkinX - April 24, 2016, 11:59 am

I would sell the site to M4v3r1ck like it should of been years ago.

Credibility - April 24, 2016, 12:02 pm

I'd look into and ban all of the fucking scammers that never get fucking dealt with.

ya3goobs - April 24, 2016, 12:04 pm

I would plant a javascript in the website :p

You know hacking is hacking :p

Jarno - April 24, 2016, 12:21 pm

Tbh if i were the owner the website would probably die, Takes alot to run forums this big successfully.

Scymo - April 24, 2016, 12:22 pm

i would change nothing, this probably brings in a fuckton of cash, why change it

Roytoy - April 24, 2016, 12:54 pm

I wouldn't change anything. HF is great as it is IMO.

Flared - April 24, 2016, 12:57 pm

I would regulate the groups more, so that if the the owner of a group isnt keeping it active enough it has to be sold.

Change the look of the site so its a different theme, but keep it darker how it is now.

Make another usergroup higher than uber called pristine which would be free and very few members would be a part of it and those who are in it are the gods of hf

ChazGaming - April 24, 2016, 12:57 pm

I wouldn't change that much to be honest. HF is good in my opinion.

Smart... really smart... ???

Raf Simons - April 24, 2016, 1:06 pm

Immediately sell it to the highest bidder.

mrnapolean1 - April 26, 2016, 5:46 pm

1. Run HF like it was 2009.
2. Sell official usergroups again.
3. Post more Youtube videos
4. More I cant think of right at the moment.

BITW - April 27, 2016, 4:22 am

I would first Close the Ebook selling.

5000 x 365 = 1,825,000. Hopefully he'd be smart enough to not blow it all on random shit and do something good with the money such as invest, startup a new business etc. At that point I don't think he'd care about this then. JS.

5000$ a day is unrealistic. And even if it were possible and you did earn 1.8million, it would still be a waste since there is alot more to be made in the future if you keep this community HQ.

Gotta think long term my friend.

Gotta think long term my friend.That's true I guess. In the long term you'd eventually hit that goal and HF would still be stable. Guess I'm impatient.

Patience pays off. For example, if a forum owner would start selling as much as possible, he'd make alot, but the forum would be LQ very soon. If he keeps it stable he would not earn that much but he would earn more and more in time and he'd keep earning it.

But then I realised that you could still do that whilst also still profiting from the forums & have a backup plan.
