Have you ever gotten mad at a timewaster who messages you for a deal but doesn't go through with the deal?

If "yes," have you ever neg repped them for it?

If "yes," have you ever neg repped an Ub3r for it?

If "no," why do you hide behind your ability to -3? Don't deliver what you can't take, pussy.

If a person wastes my time for a hour I would like to -rep them, I have had this happen a few times when i sold some Steam Cards. This kid was acting like he had the money and was going to purchase and was wasting my time for 2 hours about "Is it safe?" but in the end he said "Sorry i have no money", I got so mad i said "Why the hell did you even contact me if you have no money?" And he just left , ...Yes i would

He never asked me to go first, I didn't suspect a scam and even if he did want me to go first i would n't have gave him anything until i got my cash, Just like a store If you want a candy bar you pay me t he cash and then you get it,
