Just write why you wanna be in the group, what type of server(s) you like to play on, and your MC username. Doesn't have to look fancy or anything.

Example:

My username is Weather and I play Factions, Mini-Games, Towny, etc. I don't really care I just like playing Minecraft with friends. Sadly I don't have any friends so I want to join the Minecrafters to meet more Minecrafters like myself.

Why build a second PC and not upgrade your first one? Personally put an i7, a second GTX 970, and 16GB of RAM in my gaming PC about 6 months ago. Although I seriously need to upgrade my SSD. I have 2 extra HDD's that hold a lot but my SSD is full. I believe it's 256 GB like your's and then I have 1.5TB all together of HDD's hooked up. Which isn't enough storage when you download so many games and have like 1000 songs lol.

Lol yeah I tried having StarCraft II, Minecraft, CSGO, Fallout 4, Fallout 3, Witch Hunter 3, and a few other games and it just didn't work. I ended up only keeping Minecraft and Fallout 4 and the rest are just uninstalled for now lol.

I dread having to upgrade... but I think I'll get a 1TB SSD and then that should be good. I really want my games on something that is fast and having them on my HDD's just makes me cry. It makes me think about how the Xbox One can barely run Fallout 4 because of it's Hard Drive lol.

I'm quite an idiot. I went to go set the group as my primary, and I accidentally hit the leave group option (me not paying attention). Could I please get re-added? I just applied again.

Going to keep getting Join Requests for awhile. But I don't think I'll actually accept any for a little bit.

How long have you played?
Before Minecraft classic hit verrsion 0.30, very early in the game's development.

Certain skills/knowledge in or related to Minecraft?
I'm a really great battle planner and a somewhat adequate PvPer. I know a lot about Minecraft; but my weakness is that my information is concentrated on the early days.

Why do you want to join?
I've never been part of a group on HackForums and I've finally found one where I feel I can fit. I love Minecraft a lot and have fond memories since 2009 (until now) of it. It did play a big part in my life as it helped me overcome depression. Joining this group will allow me to converse with other Minecraft fanatics as well as allow me to discuss various things in the Minecraft world with an elite group.

Do you have a working microphone?
That is the norm these days, haha. I do have a very good working microphone and can guarantee my voice isn't total shit. I've come past the stage of squeaking so I sound like any other guy over the age of 15/16.

Favorite play style? (Factions, Creative, Mini-Game, etc)
Favorite play style? I'd say survival-anarchy, not the type that's similar to 2b2t, but as seen above, the type that's similar to CivCraft since that is my favorite game mode.

How active can you be in the sub-forum and on our private server?:
Sub-forum? I would post almost everyday as I always go on the HF Minecraft subforum.

Have you made any Minecraft related contributions?
I've made a few worlds as well as stories in 2011, but those are edgy. In terms of these days? I've released 1 exploit for MineZ as well as some theory, but that's it, haha. I'm not that amazing in terms of contributions, but I do like to surprise people. I write literature quite often and I might release a story every month or two should I get a chance to join this prestigious group.

I mean, you guys have no reason to accept me, if you're looking for someone who will release exploits and focus only on hacking, I'd have to say that sadly, I'm not your guy. If you're looking for someone who's cheerful, always in a good mood and loves to discuss various topics related to Minecraft as well as do creative pieces; I believe I'm your guy.

Servers I like to play most on: Most of the time you can find me on pvp servers. I like to play kitpvp/potpvp a lot. I'm also a moderator on a big cracked server.

Why do I want to join Minecrafters: Well, I play a lot of Minecraft. For 6 years now and I'm very active on HackForums and I would love to join a Minecraft related group as that is the only group that really clicks with me on this forum. I can bring my knowledge about Minecraft within the group and I'm a nice person to be around with. Recently I started making Minecraft montages again, and I can also edit/make video's for people.

Thanks for reading!

Servers I enjoy: Haven't really played in a long time, but i used to mostly frequent Faction servers and Prison servers. I don't really have a specific type that I enjoy, It used to be a fun game overall so i like pretty much all of them.

Why I want to join: Want to get back into MC and what better way then to join a group like this. Looking forward to possibly join this, thanks! ?

Minecraft Username: PeeVeePeer

Servers I like to play most on: I usually play factions and pvp servers, such as The Archon pvp, Daegonner, and Gontroller. I am currently a Divine rank on Archon, i was a Administrator on Daegonner and a minor rank on Gontroller. Also hosted a server called ZamorakPvp, and was a CO-Owner of Magicacraft.

Why do I want to join Minecrafters: The reason why i want to join this group is because whenever i think see "Minecraft" it bring me back great experiences and memories, it brings me closer to the society whenever i hear that the person is from Minecraft, especially if we were in the same server. I have been playing Minecraft for almost 5 years and it gives me unconditional happiness. And if i am accepted to this group, i would love to share some of my great experiences and tough decisions i had in my MC Journey, i would help others with good morality and intellect, i will be looking forward for any challenge. Thank you for reading my Application
