Thread: UID=2025980 | Dark | Scamming New Users

Jisoh The Gambs - April 26, 2016, 8:41 pm

Hello HF members,

Just thought I'd post a community alert, mainly for new users like me.

I had a shady ub3r by the name of Dark PM me telling me to go first with this thread [\[\$20\] 50K HQ IG Followers](#) and had told me to do 25k first then he'd send the money. I said no, wasn't rude about it or anything. He then said to do 10k instead and called me a sketchy user.

Spoiler (Click to View)

I told him I went first to a user at the moment and am awaiting on the payment to come through. I've told many users I'd give them a vouch before they purchase anything and if you have a look at my threads you'll see that I'm legit and I've given away a lot since I've been here.

I hadn't refused serving him as I look at every equal even if they've got a bad rep and hope we can do business.

He's given me a negative rep + given me bad feedback on my threads when I've done nothing wrong and haven't scammed one user. I've went first on many occasions and ended up giving people free services instead of selling it to them.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Also if you have a look at all my other threads, I've given away tons of followers for free. I've given vouch copies on my sales threads of up to 5k followers to users and have currently given someone 50k HQ IG followers first and awaiting the payment.

Hopefully this thread helps out some users.

Thanks.

Nothing wrong with me being safe, you couldn't even deliver 10k viewers before payment. Your assumption I was going to scam you is because you are mad I repped you.

@j0ey - April 26, 2016, 8:44 pm

Sorry you got neg repped, you did the right thing. Don't have to let anyone push you into any certain ways of dealing.

Like I've said, I've given out tons and you ask for a small vouch I would've done it.

Can't expect me to trust someone who has so much negative reputation and scam reports.

I didn't try push him?

I just didn't like his attitude to assume I was scamming when I just wanted 1/5th of what he was delivering before payment? lol.

Look at the thread he linked.

Its from a scammer who was closed.

Its from a scammer who was closed. And have a look at all your other rep and the way you came off. Like you're so much bigger than me and expect me to trust a shady ub3r expecting half of something before they even pay. I also said it was fine not to worry about the deal, there was no attitude there.

Hardly a trustworthy user:

Use a MM and move passed this silly argument. Don't be sketchy and deal safe and that goes to both

I'm always open to using a middleman, but I'm posting this thread to give other new users a warning just in case. I haven't done anything wrong as far as I'm aware but he's made it out like I have. So here's my warning.

If they are not using a mm, Obviously OP is the one who should go first with atleast some amount.
