Title says it all, mine is "Powerpuff Girls Z". I have no idea how I came across this and continued to watch this. It makes me cringe so hard.

List yours below! ?

It makes me feel cringey as hell.

Its makes no sense bruh

CorrosiveBlueberry - April 29, 2016, 10:23 am

Well I have seen what power puff girl z looks like and I have to agree it looks retarded. At first when I heard there was a anime version I thought it might be cool as made by japs but nah its lame af. More childish than the original it's like cartoon networks kid shows animation style. Not even considerable to be anime imo

"Nozo X Kimi" and "Futari Ecchi" but still i watched them all i think you know why

I think I'll let this one speak for itself: <http://myanimelist.net/anime/5027/Stitch>

Essentially took the original movie/show and pretty much copied it word for word. I only came across this by chance when a YTer was commenting on it.

Well lets just agree that Stitch, PPGZ and all those other Japanese remakes of American cartoons are just shit - it works both ways, just dont make adaptations of another countries masterpiece plz - this goes to all countries <3

I don't think i have ever watched an anime I have hated - I would maybe say Boku No Pico, like I know there are worse ones out there but I usually do a lot of research into an anime before I watch it, to make sure it is good.

Erased or Guilty Crown

Both are almost equally bad with insanely poor writing.

Kill la Kill.

Literally shit-tier trash.

Sorun - April 30, 2016, 11:01 pm

Can't think of anything I really hate but I could sit through the first episode of Chocotto sister. God what a awful piece of shit I think I turned it off 5 mins in.
