If your reason on why you should win is true, why you do not have a scam report open with the user?

Im too lazy to make a scam report. It was 25 bucks not worth the time to make a scam report.

Well I've been trying my best to setup, spread and get bots. At the end of the day it all ends up in an over-exhausting waste of time kind of thing. I've been trying to get bots, but I guess it's not my thing. Hope I end up winning this one. Would save alot of money for me. Well good luck to all the contestants. :D

Sheeple - May 1, 2016, 6:03 pm

I can barely spread by myself lmao and I just bought from you

Industry - May 1, 2016, 6:05 pm

Would be useful for for me as I haven't ventured in this stuff for a while, and having some start installs would favour me quite nicely.

Good luck to all and thanks,

I think I should get the 250 installs because I recently had a talk with jesus on the phone saying I might when a contest this week but I didn't have enough faith in myself so I was going to commit suicide until I seen your post ?

1337 - May 2, 2016, 2:01 pm

I think i should get the installs because i couldn't spread like a boss

uncle_st - May 2, 2016, 2:04 pm

I still don't know winner but those man lost :

The reason those member has lost is because i consider that giving the installs to one of those 4 would not majorly help them.

I want to give the installs to 4 person that will make good use and that really needs it.

In 40 minute or so will announce winner.
