If he goes through with the deal with a mm i'll just say he's compromised and sold @swat and now has the funds

He scammed like $750 worth of items assuming this guy got another hf account, and was selling it on the other site

Bringing this back up to the top, deal with caution in the marketplace.

Everything was going good but as soon as we were about to do the deal he stopped replying. I am going to not go through with the deal.
