Yeah if I can see a sample channel you partnered, even if it's via pm so it doesn't get exposed to too many people, I'd be interested.

Also if I wanted 100 viewers for 1$, is that a one time thing, or panel, or how does it work?

You should really improve your partnership package. From what you have in the OP, it isn't enough to get partnered. At least in a god time-frame.

If you need the method PM me. All I request as a payment is for you to give credit.

#Merky - May 11, 2016, 9:37 am

Does this come with a panel and how long does the viewer package and chatters last?

Do you guys offer any views/follows or anything of the sort for any other streaming platforms?

Beam.pro is growing and even 10 fake viewers/followers makes people stand out from the crowd at this point in the site's development.

If it works out with the first few purchases, I'll definitely purchase the partnership plan.

Thanks! :D
